Dealing with the INSANITY of Our Times

7-1-20

Why does every national security adviser from other administrations say the president should be told about any threat? Especially ones involving the military! Of course, intelligence will continue to investigate for corroboration but why not just be aware that something might be happening. Can't wait until he is gone, done, over.

I'm confused. If it's a fake story then why was UK briefed? Why was there a report in his daily briefings? Why bother with briefing congress and the "Gang of 8"?

Confirmed by our allies. The only dissenting voices come from our President and Russia. I guess that is one and the same.

This is exactly why folks call it a cult. There's a groupthink that mirrors cult behavior. It's not their beliefs that matter, but whatever their leader believes. If Trump changes his belief 180 degrees then the whole cult changes their beliefs even if it's the opposite of a day ago. Liberals have their own nuttiness, but I'll give them this much, they can't stand any leader because no one could ever fit all of their often conflicting woke standards. But at least they have something like standards. The Trump cult has only one: what does Trump believe and whatever that is becomes their belief instantly. It amazes me there are still some people who worship Donald Trump.

The intel was good enough to pass along to our allies but not good enough for our president.

We are being lied to, trump was briefed but did nothing because he doesn't want to stand up to Putin.

I'm proud to be an American. I don't support Trump. It's doable people.

"Dr. Doom himself at a Senate hearing today spreading more Covid panic and undermining Trump's agenda," said Ingraham.

[If you try to save lives you are working against Trump's agenda? Actually that sounds pretty much right.]

Here we go again. Good luck Texas, your lieutenant governor is now taking the Trump way out. Ignore the expert. Lovely.

Who you gonna trust when it comes to appropriate response to the biggest American health crisis in 100 years - a career politician or a career epidemiologist?

7-2-20

My neighbor is republican. He's a nice guy, great dad, hard worker. Keeps a clean yard, friendly, great self awareness. I don't agree with his politics, but I'd defend him in a heartbeat if someone came to hurt him. Civilized people will keep the wheels moving while the kids throw their tantrums.

7-3-20

Troubled times. At this point, the thing I look forward to the most is Trump losing in November, and subsequently leaves the White House in January of 2021. He makes Nixon look like a saint.

It's likely that Trump and/or Pence have already tested positive for this virus, but are not gonna tell anybody.

7-4-20

I just left Arizona after teaching at a college prep school there this year. All of the well educated people I knew from the school followed CDC guidelines and we had no infections in our faculty or nearly 1000 students. We cancelled our usual graduation plans and had a graduation "drive-thru" at the school using masks and social distancing that, while not ideal, was still a great way to celebrate our seniors. It's fine to be fiercely independent, but it's just plain irresponsible and reckless to ignore the advice of health care professionals.

I guess republicans can now see it's not just deep state target Fauci urging cautionary practices. Doctors and nurses are on tv every day pleading with the public. Unfortunately, due to inadequate leaders, Trump, Pence and republic governors, people have chosen to ignore good medical advice and the wheels are coming off.

It's called natural selection and it works.

I've studied totalitarianism my whole life & know thousands of people who have lost loved ones to totalitarian regimes (including my own wife's family). Trump's use of this word to describe fellow Americans is outrageous. & on the eve of July 4th... downright un-American !

Dear Rest of the World, We regret to inform you that our country is currently closed for repairs. We hope to re-open early next year under new management. - United States of America

It's a hoax. Or a cold. It will go away when the weather gets warm. By Easter.....Memorial Day at the latest.

Despite Biden, Trump getting voted out of office might just be greatest moment of American democracy.

This is how Trump fights the Pandemic, and has it "Totally under control"

- 1) Say it was a hoax, and the Democrats weaponized it to end his re-election
- 2) Say it was only a few cases from China
- 3) Ban flights from China, but not really.
- 4) Put Pence in Charge of task force

- 5) Get on television everyday and deny scientific fact
  - 6) Blame W. H.O and China for the virus
  - 7) Suggest looking into drinking bleach, Lysol, an UV light to fight the virus
  - 8) Start fights with several governors, blaming the governors for not doing their jobs.
  - 9) Encouraged people to protest against the governors stay at home orders
  - 10) Blame it on Obama , because Obama left him with out-dated vaccines.
- For those of you who don't know , this is a new virus which has not vaccine developed to fight it.
- 11) Say the "virus will miraculously go away when it gets warm.
  - 12) Encourage people to take a 9Hydroxychloroquine) dangerous untested drug with zinc which doctors and scientist have said is ineffective
  - 13) Tried to change the name from Coronavirus to "Chinese Virus, Huwan Virus, and other racist names such as Kung Flu virus.
  - 14) Held a mass rally which he said millions would attend, luckily only 6500 people were uneducated enough to risk their lives and attended
  - 15) Refuses to follow his own administrations guidelines and wear a mask
  - 16) Constantly telling people that a vaccine will be available soon
  - 17) Said if the testing slowed down , less cases would be reported.
  - 18) Today he said it was a great victory that the number of known cases has gone up.

That shows how successful the testing is.

Once Trump declares his failures a victory he usually starts another crisis, to get your mind off his failure.

The list of incompetent or reckless leadership keeps going on daily, he comes up with something which has no constructive help to ease the pandemic.

Save America

MARA 2020

Make America Respectable Again

Dump Trump, and Dump those Senators who enabled him.

DUMP TRUMP 2020

Imao "We have it totally under control," say's the captain of the Titanic

He's given Biden a new nickname: President Elect.

Fact check Trump? Why bother at this point.

I remember the good old days when we had a Republican party that believed in fiscal responsibility, law and order and telling the truth - especially telling truth to power. Well good bye to all that. Now we have a party centered on personality worship of Trump - that's why I'm an independent now and I will be voting for Biden.

Republicans always try to pass the buck. The funniest thing that came out of Trump's mouth was when he tried to blame Obama for not creating a vaccine against Covid-19 when he was president. I hope someone explained to him that you can't create a vaccine against something that doesn't exist yet. Then he tried to blame Obama for not buying new supplies even though he had three years to do it and Obama couldn't do it since all spending bills come from the House.

This is an example of the alternate reality GOP trump enablers are pushing hoping there are enough stupid people out there that will buy into this crap.

Ebola never made it outside of West Africa save one death in the U.S. That was someone who traveled from W. Africa to the U.S. Ebola never became a global pandemic. Obama sought to reduce the spread of Ebola by, among other measures, utilizing the military to deploy both troops and medical personnel into West Africa to provide assistance and build treatment centers. His chief policy advisor was Bina Venkataraman, the chief policy advisor to the president's Council of Advisors on Science and Technology. He stated fact that I was a policy advisor to a whole council of external scientists, technologists advising the president tells you something about how President Obama even structured getting advice from outsiders, being willing to accept the state of affairs." Compare this to trump who pushed experts aside and replaced by anti-science Pence along with political cronies like Trump's son-in-law, Jared Kushner, who in turn has been advised by Trump donors and Fox News celebrities.

Trump politicized and trivialized the pandemic even calling it a hoax while it was exploding worldwide. Almost 3 million people have been infected in the U.S. with 132,000 deaths.

No other nation has endured as much death from Covid-19 nor nearly as high a death rate as has the United States.

With 4.25% of the world population, America has the distinction of accounting for about 30% of pandemic deaths so far.

It is the only advanced nation where the death rate is still climbing. Three thousand deaths per day are anticipated by 1 June.

No other nation has loosened lockdowns and other social-distancing measures while deaths are increasing, as the US is now doing.

No other advanced nation was as unprepared for the pandemic as was the US.

No nation other than the US has left it to subordinate units of government – states and cities – to buy ventilators and personal protective equipment. In no other nation have such sub-governments been forced to bid against each another.

And this is what she calls "stepping up"? She is delusional.

It was simple with Trump in office. Most countries in the world, including the US, knew about the coronavirus by early January 2020 – we knew it was coming, we knew it was a respiratory illness and we knew it was airborne and spreading person to person. South Korea and the United States had their first official confirmed coronavirus case on the same date – January 19, 2020. South Korea was able to flatten their curve in a few weeks through massive testing and Trump ignored the coronavirus altogether. You cannot blame the W.H.O or Pelosi or China or Reporters or Obama or Governors or now Fauci – you're the president, it's your responsibility, blame yourself. "Leadership: Whatever happens, you're responsible. If it doesn't happen, you're responsible" – Donald Trump, November 8, 2013 Tweeter.

"Any way you cut it, this is going to be bad," a senior medical adviser at the Department of Veterans Affairs, Dr. Carter Mecher, wrote on the night of "JANUARY 28", in an email to a group of public health experts scattered around the government and universities. "The projected size of the outbreak already seems hard to believe." In January, there were hundreds of emails that were sent to the White House about the coronavirus, but Trump doesn't read and he didn't care anyway.

Despite Trump's denial weeks later, he was told about a January 29 memo produced by his trade adviser, Peter Navarro, laying out in striking detail the potential risks of a coronavirus pandemic: as many as half a million deaths and trillions of dollars in economic losses. Additionally, White House Health Secretary Alex Azar recommended to Trump a textbook “Mitigation Plan” for a pandemic, instead Azar was sidelined by Trump – who knows where Azar is now.

“Just received a briefing on the Coronavirus in China from all of our GREAT agencies, who are also working closely with China. We will continue to monitor the ongoing developments. We have the best experts anywhere in the world, and they are on top of it 24/7!” – Donald Trump, January 29, 2020 Tweet.

Trump, a Reality TV Personality, was slow to absorb the scale of the risk and to act accordingly, focusing instead on controlling the message to protect gains in the economy to help him with his 2020 election prospects. The focus shifted to messaging and confident predictions of success rather than publicly calling for a shift to mitigation. “One day, it's like a miracle, it will disappear. We have it under control!” And now, “I don't take responsibility at all”- Donald Trump.

By the time Trump imposed a travel ban from China effective February 2, over 430,000 People Had Traveled from China to United States from January 1st, including nearly 40,000 “after” President Donald Trump imposed restrictions on such travel, and none were quarantined. Also, over 2,000,000 people had traveled to the US from Europe also spreading the coronavirus, especially to the east coast states, by the time Trump imposed a European travel ban on March 11th from January 1.

While the Coronavirus was spreading throughout the United States in January, February and early March, Trump held ELEVEN MAGA rallies, spent 7 days at HIS OWN golf courses (using our taxpayer money) and hosted a Super Bowl party at Mar a Lago. And, Mitch McConnell claims that the impeachment proceedings interfered with him handling the impending Covid-19 crises – in what world does this make any sense or have any credibility to anyone.

How the virus won in the USA: one word- Trump. The only thing he did that made sense and deserved credit for was sort of shutting down China travel. But Trump's handling of China has been abysmal. Here is what he did: 1. In June 2019, Trump administration discontinued the CDC medical epidemiologist position that was embedded in China – That person left China in July, a few months before the coronavirus hit China. The position's purpose was to DETECT disease outbreaks IN CHINA.

2. Amid the worldwide outbreak Trump proposed a 19% cut to the budget of the Centers of Disease Control and Prevention, a 10% cut to Public Health Services, and a 7% cut to Global Health Services, the organizations that respond to public health threats.

3. Trump suggested ingesting disinfectants as a potential “cure.”

4. Trump chose Mike Pence, not a doctor, to oversee the US pandemic response.

5. Trump often sowed doubt about the severity of the virus, using the word HOAX at events and rallies, even doing so at events where the virus was spread.

6. Trump declined to use the WHO's test. In January, within a week of finding out about China's mysterious virus, Berlin virologists produced the first diagnostic test. By February, the WHO shipped the tests to 60 countries. Trump officials declined taking any WHO tests even as a temporary bridge. Trump wanted the CDC to create its own tests, possibly to enrich owners of test-making pharmaceutical stocks, but not sure.

7. Trump pretended the virus had been contained many, many times. You've seen his quotes.

8. On January 31 Trump imposed travel restrictions on China. That was a WISE move. Nevertheless, Trump continued to allow China flights with over 40,000 people coming in. The US did NOT test anyone arriving from China, but took people's temperatures calling that "enhanced screening." Trump said he "banned" travel to slow the pandemic's spread. However, with no tests, asymptomatic carriers got in. Travel from Europe did NOT stop until March. Before that, flights to NYC from Italy, Spain & elsewhere spread the virus. NYC fast became the USA's pandemic's epicenter.

Trump's frequent bragging about the "great job" he has done lies in sharp contrast to reality. He has shifted blame to governors, later saying "I don't take responsibility at all" and when support of states fell short, complained that the federal government was "not shipping clerks." No one could fully contain a pandemic. Even if Trump did everything right, Americans would have died. However, Trump's pathetic response raised the death toll considerably. That is Trump's legacy. Now, Trumpsters, begin the thumbs downs, the insults, the deflections, and lies about the verifiable FACTS offered above.

It was downplayed for political reasons--plain and simple. That was a horrible disservice to the American people.

It's not just in west Texas. We live in on the South Texas coast and homes and boats were full of people shoulder to shoulder this weekend, without a mask in sight. Expect the case count to rise shortly. Shocking that people don't want to protect themselves and others. Just not American.

No one has to wear a mask, it's just the right thing to do if you care for yourself, your loved one's, your neighborhood, your community, your city, your county, your state and your country. Spend one day in an ICU watching a young individual trying to breathe, stay long enough and watch him/her catch their last breath...turn to his/her family members and convince them a mask is still unnecessary, and while you're at it thank the Doctor and all the staff who want to take a break and enjoy what you enjoy...breath!

This is the problem when the message is mixed. If you have a governor or president that is/was against masks, the message gets lost, because for months, it is drilled into you head that you don't need them. Now you have people who wear them and some that don't not political, and it's not rocket science. Wear a mask, protect those around you, your family, parents, grandparents, and strangers; only then can we get things to go in the right direction.

Right wingers who defy wearing masks and social distancing can do what they want and get sick. Where I take issue is when they pass the virus on to others or require medical resources.

I find it hilarious that so many Texans, who normally despise a fast-talking New York City yankee, have all come to accept and embrace his carpetbagger ways. You would think by now they would learn?

7-6-20

don't let one party suppress your vote. i don't care if i have to wait all night in the pouring rain or a blizzard, i'm voting in November.

People in Milwaukee want to know more about Joe Biden.

He's only been in politics for 50 years.

That should be enough.

Trump is the #1 creator of FAKE NEWS

Republican #CancelCulture getting out-of-control: now they are trying to silence Fox News!

Trump sent a "cease and desist" threat to CNN last month for broadcasting a poll that showed him trailing Biden by 14 points. That act alone confirms he is unfit to be president.

"McEnany's slides showed a case fatality rate -- the percentage of confirmed cases that result in death -- of 4.6 percent, not the 1 percent implied by Trump."

You know you drank the koolaid when your arguing against your own charts.

McEnany said the president was merely pointing to "a factual statement, one that is rooted in science".

Factual and science are NOT part of this administration.

Baghdad Barbie says what?

Remember, she's a Christian who promised to never lie to the public. Just like the previous Christian who lied to the public, she is now lying to the public.

Everyone new this administration didn't believe in science but now we find out they don't believe in Math!

A younger version of Kellyanne Conway with alternative facts and avoiding the questions.

News of the Surreal (for Real): "White House defends Trump's claim that 99 percent of COVID-19 cases are 'harmless' with chart showing 5 percent are fatal."

7-7-20

The Lincoln Project (George Conway's group of anti-Trump Republicans) has consistently done the best political ads. This could be their best one yet to prey on Trump's fragile ego: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bk6d4TgO2NY>

If Trump thinks that the Confederate Flag is OK, at his next rally he should be surrounded by them and go up and embrace one. I dare him to.

Would someone tell Trump the civil war is over, the confederacy lost?

Trump is making George Wallace look moderate!

Statue preservation. Sports team names. The confederate flag. So glad that Trump can focus on these critical issues without being distracted by the pandemic, unemployment, healthcare, or the rise in racist attacks.

Trump is running for President of the Confederacy.

Racism, plague, financial ruin, entire branches of government in ashes, civil service destroyed, debt, penury, 40 million unemployed, bailiffs on the doorstep in July August. If you want more of this, vote MAGA for eternal strife and woe, you know its character building.

let's not forget this baseless fear: "Der Komin ta take ma gunz!"

The Grand Wizard of the GOP is just pandering to his klansmen. November will not be kind to trump, the GOP or MAGAs.

trump also thinks Jefferson Davis was the 2nd greatest President after himself

After reading aloud a particularly damning passage that covers both Trump's "blatant racism" and lack of religious faith, Faulkner asked, "What is the reaction from the White House to the book that is coming out?"

White House Press Secretary Kayleigh McEnany, meanwhile, deemed everything in the book false despite the fact that she has not read any of it yet. "It's ridiculous, absurd allegations that have absolutely no bearing in truth,” she said on Tuesday. “Have yet to see the book, but it is a book of falsehoods.”

This is going to be a VERY funny (and sad) election season. It has to be, because the truth must come out.

Guess what, honey? Don't want your personal business 'out there'? Then don't run for President...it comes with the territory.

No one man can run a free country. It takes people who know and are trusted to give sound advice that the president can act on. Trump is untethered from his advisors, and frequently belittles those who don't see it his way. Leadership is about reason, delegation and control. Trump can't control himself, let alone the country. We need a man or woman who can work with a team to bridge divides, and admit mistakes and be a grown up. we do not have that, and it is vital to our survival as a nation. A house divided will surely fall, and we have been falling for 3 and a half years.

trump has shown his TRUE self. He has ZERO empathy for Mr. Floyd, No desire to unite our county against racism and after a MAGAlomaniac FAKE christian photo op with a BORROWED bible against protesters he has shown a desire to be our Supreme Leader. Americans Will Never Forget and will vote him out!

The world is watching America like America watched “Tiger King”

7-8-20

So is it ok to question someone's patriotism if they didn't join the military like both Trump and Carlson never did? Asking for a friend.

Carlson and Fox News isn't the problem; it's the people who watch it.

I bet most teachers are in the 30-50 year range. Who will guarantee their safety?

I thought every life was precious? When banning abortions that is what pro-lifers say.

Now, they are saying it is a dictatorship to tell people to wear mask to save lives. Which is it? Banning abortion to save lives? Or wearing mask to save lives?

I'm guessing there are women who think it is a dictatorship to tell them what to do with their body.

Women have the right to make their own decisions about abortion, if pro-lifers think they have the right to make their own choice about wearing masks.

She screams about the effects of an extended lockdown, but she neglects to mention that had the pandemic been properly managed early on (NOT disbanding the pandemic response teams, not replacing CDC people who would deal with the virus, not ignoring the pandemic playbook left by the previous administration simply because it was left by the previous administration, far better screenings for the virus at airports along with the implemented travel bans, and not spending a month and a half calling it a hoax while golfing and holding feel good rallies), there wouldn't have been any need for an extended lockdown.

Sorry I'm not leaving my children's health returning to school up to Trump or Fox.

States with GOP governors have cases that show a rise that looks like the start of a rollercoaster. States with Dem. governors have cases that are going down like a ski slope. Now Laura, let me explain. If cases are rising, this is BAD. If cases are going down this is GOOD. Again more cases BAD, fewer cases GOOD. OMG it's like talking to a 3-year-old.

I think the President has gone too far wanting every school system open. Education is important. But lives of any age are more important. Why did we close school in the first place if it's safe now with record number of cases being reported in some states?

Do you feel safer our children will be shuffled off to schools implementing protocols influenced by a man who has told over 19,000 lies in 3.5 years and is only concerned with being reelected?

Why even bother with the CDC at this point? Every institution that we have in this country has been corrupted and compromised by Trump.

Oh yeah nothing spells success like 43 million unemployed, 12 years of job growth lost, 50,000 new infections per day, 130,000 lives lost with no end in sight, millions going hungry, thousands of small business bankruptcies, food shortages, medical supply shortages, test kit shortages, trillions of new national debt, trillions of corporate welfare bussed away supporting Donnie's campaign donors with zero return on investment, widespread relief fund fraud, millions soon to be homeless, suffering the largest one week stock market losses since the crash of 1987, the biggest economic decline since the Great Depression, and riots in most major cities. This must be that "great progress" that Mike Pence was talking about last week?

"His first run for politics he won the presidency of the United States!"

Popular lie. He did have a campaign for president in 2000. It didn't last very long.

Perhaps they're spinning this to say you can't "lose" if you quit early.

More on subject, have you noticed Trump's 2020 campaign material makes noticeably less use of "Keep America Great?" They've reverted to "Make America Great Again," which at this point implies that America was great before he became president, in effect running on the promise to undo the damage he did himself.

His cultists won't recognize the irony.

My car mechanic said I need a new transmission. But I disagree. I don't know anything about transmissions, but still I disagree. Like it's an opinion.

Trump said 99% of the cases are harmless, despite a 5% death rate. Think about that. AND....since I'm a percentages guy, I think Trump should hold a meet and greet for his base asap. If Covid#45 is only lethal 1% of the time (as Trump says) then he's got NOTHING to worry about.

So.....how about that meet and greet, Trump??

7-9-20

If I was a liberal, I'd respond with, "If I could only see his reaction!"

But because I'm a conservative, I'd respond with, "How could two SC judges rule in his favor?"

This isn't about Trump. This is about checks and balances within the legal system. And to be honest, I don't see the NY AG finding anything they can use against Trump. Trump just doesn't want the average Joe knowing what he and his companies make. I can understand the desire for privacy, but hey you made the choice to take on the least private job in the entire world. Decisions have consequences and I'm glad the SC didn't find the reason to create a new precedent.

It's great to watch Trump and the GOP implode

Trump couldn't care less about the Law, that's the problem. He has no reference for what's legal or illegal because he expects to be able to do what he wants. That's why he can't understand why Obama and Biden aren't being grilled in the Senate for actions, that William Barr has stated, fall within the confines of the Law.

You don't have to like President Trump, but he gets results and raised Americans' quality of life.

Yes Trump gets results, just not the ones we need, as for quality of life how many people are dying due to the coronaviirus and or out of a job?

Hydroxy isn't only extremely safe, it's nearly 100% effective when introduced in the early stages of covid, more fake news media lies trying to make our good and honest Mr. President look bad, we'll it's not going to work losers, we have the lowest death rate from covid in the world per amount of cases and it's not even close. That's all thanks to Trumps vigilance and wisdom in the middle of the worse pandemic mankind has ever faced. America thanks and loves you Donald Trump, you're absolutely incredible!

Obviously Dr. Fauci hasn't heard that COVID-19 was over two months ago and that it was the single greatest victory in the entire history of human kind and it was all due to the innate scientific brilliance that Donald Trump inherited from his uncle?

The greatest crisis for the Trump administration is an outbreak of the truth. Donnie's frenzied and contradictory statements show just how far he will go to prevent its spread. Trump gave Pence the Coronavirus task because Trump figured if it turned into a fiasco people will blame Pence instead of him. But in order for that to work Trump had to but out which he couldn't do. Trump had an opportunity to step back and as he said "let the experts do the talking" but his ego got in the way. He couldn't stand that these people were stealing his limelight so he second guessed, contradicted and disagreed with what they say in an effort to assert his dominance. The problem is he discredited them to the point where people don't have faith in them and people don't have confidence Trump will let them do their job. It has gotten so bad that major news networks will no longer air his press briefings because they have become nothing more than disinformation at best and propaganda at worst. The heads of the CDC, FDA and FEMA wont last long if they keep telling the truth about the Trump administrations lack of preparedness for this crisis. They will be replaced with regime friendly "interim" sycophants who will faithfully parrot Prima Donnie's ever changing opinions like Jared Kushner and Ivanka.

Birx and Fauci are in a catch 22. Basically they have to play along with Trump's BS in order to help people. However, the problem with them playing along is they look like stooges and sycophants in the process. They could have walked away or taken a hard line against Trump and left with their reputations intact but they chose to stay and try to help people despite Trump's best efforts. The problem is Trump is using them in a cynical game of Appeal To Authority whereby Trump is legitimized by their presence. However, you can be sure Cult45 will try to pin Trumps failures on them to protect their golden calf.

This should be surprising to nobody. Trump has consistently just created his own politically expedient reality whenever the facts or the experts provide different conclusions.

Welcome to Day 1267.

Today in one sentence: Another 1.3 million workers filed new claims for state unemployment benefits; the Supreme Court cleared the way for prosecutors in New York to enforce a subpoena for Trump's financial and tax records; Dr. Anthony Fauci advised states "having a serious problem" with a surge in coronavirus cases to "seriously look at shutting down"; the CDC will not revise its guidelines for reopening schools despite pressure from Trump and the White House; and the World Health Organization acknowledged that the coronavirus may become airborne.

Trump's vision for his second term? At least Biden is pledging to try and fix things, Trump is just running around calling people names and spreading blame as far and wide as he can. Biden will spend most of his time just getting the country back on track, but he's capable of doing just that.

A LANDSLIDE WIN FOR JOE BIDEN. USING TRUMP'S OWN WORDS.....LIKE YOU'VE NEVER SEEN BEFORE.

7-11-20

I have no issue with this, provided we also remove tax-exempt status from religious institutions that push a political position.

What about the Tax-exempt Churches he gave over $17 million too?

Trump on Friday railed against universities and school systems that he argued were "about radical left indoctrination, not education." ... In two tweets, the president said he was telling the Treasury Department to "re-examine" the tax-exempt status of colleges and universities if they use "propaganda or act against public policy."

Translation of last phrase: " ... if they use actual education or waver from my personal opinions about anything."

AKA ... "It's all about ME-E-E-E-E-E-E-E or I punish you and make your life hard !!!!! "

If Trump is worried about kids being indoctrinated, shouldn't he be reviewing the tax status of every church in the country?

Universities, like houses of worship should pay taxes. Actually, why should any institution be exempt from taxes?

Trump lives in some fantasy world of lies that he actually believes to be real. Thousands of clinical psychologists can see and hear all of Trump's words and his physical shortcomings and make a diagnosis based on these things. Trump is not well both physically and mentally.

Trump is probably the only person in the history of America since 1860 that did not know that Lincoln was a Republican. What a lot of people are unaware of, especially Trump, is that the Republican Party of Lincoln's era is not the same as the Republican Party of the 21st century. In fact, they and the Democratic Party have essentially switched places since the time of Lincoln when it comes to social issues, views on government controls, and many other aspects of politics.

The fact is Abraham Lincoln would be a democrat today

A new White House Press Secretary, slim and pretty, but the same lies.!!!

Then why is he threatening to pull federal funding from schools if they don't abide by his will.? How does that help the kids? Fortunately he hasn't the power to do it, but making empty threats is part of his style.

Fox News achieves peak gaslighting by claiming Trump never called Mexicans rapists
Not meant to be a sad post, just more for awareness, but thought it may be nice to compose a list of food places around Riverside that have permanently closed. Feel free to add to this list if you've seen any. Also a good reminder that some big name chains are franchises and still need our business:

Pizza Hut-161

Fortune-161

Wendy's-linworth

Golden Corral-161

We're better off without pizza hit. Pretty sure Max n Erma's won't be back either. This is just the beginning many more will be gone within the next 12 months.

Texas just rolled in the refrigerator trucks because the morgue is filling up. But will you believe Governor Abbott and Lt Gov. Patrick? Remember both opened up Texas against the strong recommendation of Fauci because both are Trump loyalists and bootlickers. Both bashed Fauci just like the White House is now doing.

Press arrow up if you support Fauci over "The Abbott and Costello" show.

BA in English and live vasectomy reality star okay then: school generally opens in late aug. so about 2 weeks later is when we will begin to see an increase. that is well before the election. the trump administration has been wrong every time, yet they are willing to roll the dice again; this time with school kids.

Re-opening schools is going to have the same affect as everything else that's re-opened , under trump's demands . It will cause another surge in cases .... among our kids and grandkids . It's just another thing he hopes will help his re-election . I would "hope" this shows EVERYBODY how little concern he has for them ; to the point that he would put children in danger to help him get re-elected . He's sick .

DeVos: "I'm saying, all kids return to school we have no plan and don't intend to....figure it out STAY-SAFE on your own.

My plan is this: "Each school should figure this shit out as they go. Good luck kids. Devos out."

DeVos, for the millionth time: "the main rule here is that the children should return back to school"..... Parents: "no, MY main rule is that my child can do it safely"..... DeVos: "you don't understand - the children need to go back to school...." Parents: "....."

Our plan is : We need to make a plan! What's a few dead kids here and there ; think of the economy! -The party of pro life people.

GOP 5 years ago: Think about the children; we HAVE to protect our greatest/ most precious resource... GOP 2020 : Children? Screw em; if they get sick or die, them's the breaks.

It is sad that Trump could not get a TV doctor to tweet this. He had to resort to retweeting a game show hosts diagnosis. House, Hawkeye Pierce, or Dr Quinn, all would have been more credible.

Unbelievable ... Trump sides with a has been, game show host over the CDC, Fauci, and virtually all of the scientific community. I guess if Trump gets all his information from Fox and Friends instead of the CIA and all the other intelligence agencies, it shouldn't be that much of a surprise he chooses to listen to Chuck Woolery and not the experts.

Chuck, a good Christian man (4 times married), I guess the divorce part of Christianity doesn't apply to one's character or ability to make smart choices.

Trump is the only person responsible for his predicament. This pandemic could have guaranteed his reelection if he should tough leadership.

At the beginning of the pandemic people were complaining about his positive attitude. But what should have been said is Fauci is being Mr Doom and Gloom and Trump is trying to be Mr Positive.

But once he started going off script and talking about potential treatments that were not realistic or tested, he lost a lot of credibility with the public.

He had the perfect scapegoat for anything that went wrong, the Governors who bungled their response. Remember this was a state's rights issue and the states did not give up their rights to the federal government. They just wanted the federal government to bail them out.

Trump could have used this to show that he has done all that he can and could have used the CDC to manage the states that went rogue. But he was too worried about the election that he lost control and this is why he is going to lose in November.

Trump is officially KAREN of the Year. She/he doesn't listen to so-called Medical Doctor's, what do these people know. Nope Karen Trump listens to reality TV personalities, @hannityandcrazies on Twitter and FB. Yep, Trump gets the truth from Facebook.

Karen Trump 2020

This is no joke people. My wife and I are both nurses, we have a friend of 20 years, educated, smart, and a never Trumper. But when COVID19 came, he started talking about how it is a hoax, the media is involved, and started supporting Trump's theory. I asked him, there's 67 beds in ICU at my work, they are all full of COVID 19 patients, we even set up a overflow tent with an additional 50 beds, all taken. That's a total of 117 beds, I asked him if he truly believed the "media" not only hired 117 actors to filled these beds, but they also hired an additional 234 actors to played parents, spouses, and even hired children actors, that's a lot of people involved, yet no a single person came out to say they are actors. He said they are well paid to keep it a secret. So why do people believed in conspiracy theory and hoax? It's the "unknown" factor, when something happened that they can't used an logic or understanding of the event, it creates fear in their head, so they attached themselves to a theory to not only eased their fear, but also to belong to a group and to showed everyone how smart they are, that they know something you don't,,in this case, COVID 19 is a hoax, that they are too smart for it,,that's why they are not afraid.

If this is a hoax perpetrated by Democrats, with 185 other nations complicit, then Democrats MUST be elected to every office in November -- they have demonstrated the greatest ability to get everyone, domestically and worldwide, to work toward a common task: make Trump look bad.

Or maybe Trump is just doing that all by himself.

Do you remember when the great President Obama golfed hundreds of times during the Ebola pandemic and the riots? Don't you? You sure? Neither do I, come to think of it. I THINK THE TRUMP PRESIDENCY IS A HOAX... IT WAS SOME GRAND PLAN TO SEE IF THE NATION WOULD FALL APART UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS Those aren't real people dying. They are actors hired by the DNC to make Trump look bad before the election. This elaborate ruse also uses actors to pose as burnt out nurses and doctors working tirelessly around the clock. The real nurses and doctors are actually vacationing in the Bahamas until after the election complements of the liberal left. They will return to their jobs when the election is over.

I'll take "Failed Game Show Hosts" for $500, Chuck.

I have a theory that Donald Trump is actually Andy Kaufman.

Imagine! A world-wide hoax no less! The entire world is complicit!

Trump is the man child who cried hoax.

Republicans, Trump supporters. This makes you look really, really bad. This is your fork in the road. How many crescendos do you need? How many times do you let the twitter king pick up your bun and spit in your burger? Where is your personal pride and convictions? First of all, the notion that EVERYONE is lying, EXCEPT for Republicans and TRUMP, is (fill in the blank, so many thousands of words apply). Second of all, the economy and the health of this country would be BACK ON TRACK if Trump did his **** job in the first place instead of POLITICIZING this for the election as he continues to do (and is doing a god **** terrible job at). Look around the world. We are leading everyone on how NOT to handle this. Do I blame the citizens, yes sure. People should be taking their own personal responsibility and accountability. But when you have a leadership, a PRESIDENT who continues to drive divisiveness, lies, misinformation, stoking paranoia and pandering to the lowest bases of fear in man, it is going to create the exact mess that America currently is. You don't have to like Joe Biden. Heck you can hate him. You can hate liberal politics (even though sleepy Joe ain't a lib, but whatever), but in 2020 you need to vote to literally save your own country and we need to overthrow this bat**** regime in the white house. I forgive whoever thought this might have worked. It might have if Corona never happened, perhaps it was working, but this is the thing. You can't just be a hero when the water is calm. Trump has been absolutely atrocious in his response to all of this. Uniformly awful. The craziest thing is he doesn't understand that his response to containing covid and fixing the economy are literally his re-election platform. He thinks it is avoiding, ignoring and spewing hate. He has no idea that playing politics right now is exactly what is burning him.

Each and every day, I understand how Evangelicals see trump as a Christian Saint delivered directly from the invisible space man.

A well-known hoax was the birther movement perpetrated by Trump. Seems to me, a person who has started any number of actual hoaxes in his lifetime would be the first person to call anything against him a hoax. In any event, I am tired of his ineffectiveness, his negativity and all of the drama. I am voting for Biden.

So 135,000 people are lying about their deaths?

Protesters caused this spike all over this country. Spitting on everyone, slobbering over stealing racks of T-Shirts. This was all televised. I was watching as the liberal media was telling me the opposite of the true events in action. Democrats will perish in hell for this.

Brain cells everywhere die every time Devos opens her mouth.

IVANKA is right! Say for example, if you design handbags in the past, you could get a top level job at the WH advising the president!

It never ends. The Trump administration is fn clueless. This "Find Something New" campaign just shows how out of touch they are with reality. But I am going to take their advice in a way. I am going to "Find Something New" by voting for Biden so I can have a new competent president.

Betsy Devos doesn't care about your child's health or education. Her immediate family owns a few schools that survive off your kids attending those schools. Her last job was for a collection agency that collected federal student loans. I can tell you from personal experience that company didn't care about ethics (no I don't have student loans). Devos was also in contempt of court after refusing forgiveness on eligible loans. Loans that qualified based on the contract they signed. Teachers unions have been forced to sue her over this refusal. Her reasoning to not forgive the loans have been nothing short of ridiculous.

She's stripped protections away from borrowers that were conned into attending schools the government approved but later close while attending. These schools target low income areas pushing hope of a better life after attending. Then suddenly out of nowhere the school closes and you're left with a huge loan and credits that will not transfer anywhere. If you received a diploma at one of these closed schools it literally becomes worthless. We have the right per the contract and courts to have loans forgiven under those circumstances.

She's refused to honor both situations even after courts have ruled she must do so. She is actively bringing in attorneys trying to get around laws preventing the sale of federal student loans. There are so many point that could be made here but I'll end with this. Education is a business to her and that's not someone we can trust right now.

Can a Trumper please justify Mrs, DeVos being the Secretary of Education? She has no formal background in education, she has never taught in a public school and her education level would not allow her be a grade school principal. This is who we pick to be the person who leads the schools for the United States of America?

So, conservatives and DeVos want schools opened at any cost to the well being of the students, teachers, and parents! Is this to benefit the students or Trump's reelection?

“Respect science, respect nature, respect each other. Biden 2020”

Biden plan on winning the election is just to be quiet and letting trump talk.

When the Administration says Fauci doesn't have the whole national interest in mind, he is correct. Dr. Fauci only has the public health in mind. That is his specialty, and that is all he reports on. The economy is of no concern to Fauci and neither is political maneuvering. He is singularly focused on this pandemic and its potential threat to the public health. His reports and predictions are the sum total of decades of training and study of pandemics. In this area it is probable that he is in the top 10 people in the world to speak with authority on this subject. He is simply reporting the facts as he sees them and offers a possible outcome. He has no ulterior motive that can be discerned. But the truth that he speaks is inconvenient to the political ambitions of a single man. Dr. Fauci should be credited for placing the health of the entire population at a higher priority than the aspirations of one individual.

As CNN's Jim Acosta said yesterday, "The only people left in the White House are kool-aid drinkers and next of kin."

YOU can believe TRUMP, CONSPIRACY THEORIES, AND LIES and I will believe SCIENCE, FAUCI AND DOCTORS and we will see who lives the LONGEST.

The Trump Administration: We support the opinions of a former Game Show Host on a viral Pandemic over those of a virologist, and if you do too then COME ON DOWN!

If the WH denies it, we all know it must be true.

Let see. Fauci is a doctor. Trump brought his degree..... who should u listen to????

I went to a new doctor, yesterday. I had to fill out forms for about 10 minutes in the waiting room with Fox on the TV. They were droning on and on about Hillary...OMG!!

- a. Kids go back to school
- b. Kids come home parents get sick and die!
- c. Kids go back to school?

I endorse this message. Stop the rot, America. Love from Ireland

Amazing how quickly The Lincoln Project's creative team responds to events on the ground and turns out these absolute gems in one day.

Blame. Deflect. Lie. SCRAM YOU BUM!

Breaking News: January, 2021, In a reversal of roles today, William Barr was Fired and indicted for corruption and several criminal charges while President Joe Biden, immediately upon taking the Oath, restored Geoffrey Berman to his original position, with back pay.

Like Trump, Barr is likely to be indicted the day he leaves office.

Imagine being so insecure as President that you repeatedly elevate a 1st term congresswoman to boogie-woman status. Like her or hate her you probably didn't know of her until major players started citing her as the devil. Same goes for almost the whole 'squad'.

The guy must have a stroke. He's crazier than normal.

The US has become a laughing stock.

Guess we see a president decomposing live on TV...how long will it take before republicans just admit the evident decay of trumps cognitive aptitude.

I'm starting to think he's gonna suicide. He's more and more going full mental by the day. Seen it before with big ego's that meet reality.

Remember the big deal all the trump supporters clamored about Hillary getting the questions ahead of time? So what will they say when trump doesn't answer the question he is given. I have it at even odds that during the debates trump brings up Hillary and Obama more than Biden and all he will do is whine.

Trump has proven time and time again, how irrelevant he is!

Signs of dementia for sure. He can't focus on what the speaker is asking. Someone should ask him what the date is and the address of the White House and the name of his third, first and second wife and the ages of his children and grand children and their names.

Please explain what's the use of voting when you have this. Georgia's Gov. Brian Kemp is explicitly banning Georgia's cities and counties from ordering people to wear masks in public places. He voided orders on Wednesday that at least 15 local governments across the state had adopted even though Kemp had earlier said cities and counties had no power to order masks. ?

It has saved a few lives here. I just lost a relative in Florida due to the virus. She was a nurse and became ill and was diagnosed with an ear infection. On Wednesday she was admitted to the hospital where she worked and only put on a ventilator yesterday. She died at midnight last night alone. You don't want to wear a mask, so be it but there are so many giving up their lives for the ignorance of the few.

I gather no one in his family is in the front line working at hospitals in the uncertainty of overwhelming cases and ongoing potential exposure if/when cases rise. These people are disconnected from the pain.

Obviously, voluntary does not work. That's why Covid-19 is rampant in Georgia, Florida and Texas. People will not take Covid-19 seriously unless Covid-19 mitigation efforts are mandatory. Kemp's actions impact the whole country because infected Georgians will be traveling to other states spreading the virus.

The 2020 election is nigh, and virtually all signs are bad for the GOP. Trump trails both nationally and in every closely decided 2016 swing state. The continued coronavirus pandemic, largely quashed in many Western European countries, is resurgent here in ways that both reflect poorly on Trump's handling of it and rob him of his supposed electoral silver bullet: the economy. And polls and GOP strategists suggest Trump is not just struggling but also dragging down GOP congressional candidates across the country. Stay the course donnie, you're doing great!

When will Trump be held accountable for ALL of his mis-doings as president?? He made himself above the law and his minions are breaking the law by protecting him. Welcome to the Twilight Zone.

This guy cares nothing about the Supreme Court or the Constitution and unless the Republican senators stand up against him, a dictatorship is inevitable.

Laws only apply to other 98%.

I've always been a moderate Republican, but Trump is pushing me over to the Democratic side.

Trump's lawyer, Rudy Giuliani, recently stated that the audits have been completed and are no longer an issue, so where are those tax filings that were promised to the American people?

White House press secretary Kayleigh McEnany on school reopenings: "The science should not stand in the way of this."

Two weeks after Israel fully reopened schools, a COVID-19 outbreak sweeping through classrooms — including at least 130 cases at a single school — has led officials to close dozens of schools where students and staff were infected. A new policy orders any school where a virus case emerges to close.

The Hannity/Jones/Limpbaugh study says kids need to be in school, so we're simply following the science.

That there science always getting in the way. I deserve the power of flight, and the science shouldn't stand in the way of that. We should all be able to eat ice cream every day and have six pack abs, and the science shouldn't stand in the way of that either. So many fantastical things should be left free of the cold hand of science getting in the way.

I'll send my son to school as soon as Barron is enrolled in and attends a public school this Fall.

haha jesus "the science should not stand in the way of this" - rather: we should base everything on emotions and "gut feelings"- what could go wrong?

IN NOVEMBER... Remember, it's not just Trump...

It is also the politicians who continue to enable and defend him. Without their support, he would be gone by now...

VOTE

“In a way, the world-view of the Party imposed itself most successfully on people incapable of understanding it. They could be made to accept the most flagrant violations of reality, because they never fully grasped the enormity of what was demanded of them, and were not sufficiently interested in public events to notice what was happening. By lack of understanding they remained sane. They simply swallowed everything, and what they swallowed did them no harm, because it left no residue behind, just as a grain of corn will pass undigested through the body of a bird.”

— George Orwell, 1984

We've been saying for decades that GOP is anti-science. Do you finally get it?

Scary part is trump supporters now believe that to be the word.

God, I can't wait to get a sane, intelligent, science-believing President and administration in the White House!

Oh wow, I can translate that. What she really said is that the truth should not stand in the way of administration lies.

drink your kool-aid, brush your hair, and smile pretty

The 32% who stand with Trump no matter what: The country really wonders about you.

When you are coding in an emergency room, you hope science can save you. When you are told you have cancer, you hope science can save you. If your child comes down with a life threatening illness, you hope science can save him/her. If you don't want to use science during this pandemic, then sign a waiver to not use the science to save your life or the life of your loved one and allow nature to run its course. Don't use up the resources for the rest of us who choose to follow the science and not make this into a political circus.

Kelly Anne 2.0 just replaced the great "Alternative Facts" line from her Beta version.

I think the most appropriate tagline for this administration is "No Lives Matter."

We refuse to be encumbered by facts

A blue wave is coming to wash away the filth of this Republican nightmare.

"The science should not stand in the way of this." WOW...!!!

Laura Ingraham the past two days has been touting a German school study stating it's safe for kids to attend school. She failed to mention that Germany has a very low rate of infection as a country, how convenient of her.

Baghdad Barbie, Minister of Propaganda.

Trumpies and science, the twain never meet. Most Trumpies still think the Earth is flat and the sun revolves around the flat Earth at the center of the universe.

Republican convention is 39 days away. We're averaging 65k new infections/day - if that stays flat, then 2.5M additional infections by then. DJT may as well give his concession speech (if they don't cancel the convention).

I was a teacher for 39 years before recently retiring. Good luck finding substitute teachers and bus drivers and other staff) when regular teachers start getting sick. In a perfect situation, substitute teachers are hard to find. Would you go substitute teach in a classroom where a teacher contracted covid for $85/day? That's what they pay substitutes in my district. My guess is, most people wouldn't do it for $125/day.

We used to be a great country ahead on many levels when compared to other countries. Now instead of America being Great "Again," we are now the laughing stock of all countries and are falling fast as a leading nation in anything. Well you all can thank Mr. Trump and the rest of the GOP for the position you are in. This is what 3 and 1/2 years of leaderless politics has resulted in. Vote!

Not to worry. B__S__ Barbie and Cadet Bone Spurs are always right and truthful. Hey, wanna buy the Brooklyn Bridge?

"The science should not stand in the way of this."

Actually that's a good addition. Goes right along with their doctrine of "Never let facts get in the way."

Without science we would virtually nothing that we currently use in daily life. Cell phones, computers, internet, satellite tv, GPS, electricity, automobiles, airplanes, healthcare, etc, etc, etc..... But let's not let science stand in the way of daily life.

Sure then the kids can carry the virus back to mom, dad, siblings, grandparents etc..

Kayleigh is definitely a dumbo for repeating his words. Just another one who is only interested in her career. I too agree that when Barron goes to public school maybe we could think about it. Also I wonder where they plan on getting bus drivers. Most are retirees 65+ years and commercial licenses are not easy to get. I Trump going to make the Army do it

Republicans fear science and hate education, good luck with that!

Germany pop.81 million, cases 199,729 7/15 885 new cases / Florida pop. 21.5 million cases 328,652 count for today 13,965. Do you think they care, if so buy Goya Beans - America First ?

Survey of 5 European countries that have reopened their schools had a total of 500 new cases of the virus per day on average over the past two weeks combined...

U.S. is averaging over 100x as many...

You really want you school aged child subjected to that?

I'm all for restarting everything, but so much time and effort has been wasted because of administration pushing states to reopen before they were ready and meeting CDC guidelines that the *president himself was quoting and then going on the very next day urging residents of Michigan, West Virginia and others to ignore the guidelines and "take back their states" and reopen...

I'm beginning to think the press Secretary "earned" her law degree on her back.

BIDEN 2020!!! Time to end this disgrace.

Trump is not only the worst president of all time, he's the worst AMERICAN of all time, period. An absolute disgrace that will be savaged by history.

I worked as a journalist for 40 years and now do government communications, including leadership on COVID-19 comms in my state. KM is a complete twit, but not a surprise because that's what Trump likes. No critical thinking skills, not statement of facts, etc. Unbelievable.

This administration does not accept science or facts. They are motivated by money, power, and greed. Their supreme leader suffers from affluenza, delusions of grandeur, and has a false sense of reality. The man has no concern for you, me, or anyone except the man looking back in his mirror.

McEnany is just as bad as Trump for spreading dangerous misinformation that is and will continue to cost lives. She is truly a person with no soul, no conscience.

We closed schools when the country was around 3,000 new cases per day. Now we're at 60,000 new cases per day and people want to OPEN the schools???

By tomorrow morning, over 140,000 Americans will had died from COVID.

COVID will disappear by week end.

No orders on masks but confederate statues really need protection.

If they replace Trump, the campaign will do just fine with any manager.

trump's campaign.....mission impossible

This isn't between Trump and Biden. This election is Trump: Yes or No. Biden could be anybody.

Trump loses votes every day due to virus, virus deaths, lying, and talking like a 10 year old that doesn't understand what is going on.

Biden wins in the biggest land slide since Bush Sr.

Considering the current state of this country, why would anybody want to give trump 4 more years? Biden doesn't really have to do anything.

So far Biden has never mentioned windmills causing cancer - or suggesting to nuke hurricanes - that alone is a step in the right direction.

his ads are hilarious. Nothing on facts, just fear. That's what happens when you don't have an agenda for three and a half years

All Biden has to do is relax and let Trump do all the talking and he'll propel the VP straight into the White House. Lots of donors are giving money to Biden, but Biden doesn't need the money since Trump keeps putting his foot in his mouth. It's going to be the cheapest election ever. Can't wait to see the orange lose. Haha!

Biden is playing rope a dope perfectly. Can't wait for KO in November

I think Trump's tv ad showing all the rioters, burning bldgs, defund police signs etc. and saying this is the way it'll be if Biden gets elected is hilarious BUT..... Newsflash trumpsters ....., all the video footage is from what's already happening right now. And who's president right now?

Trump knows he is losing badly, and he is trying to pick a fight with Joe. However, Joe understands a Trump's ploys.

Polls were not wrong in 2016. National polls and battleground states' polls correctly predict the Vote within the margin of error. Total votes closely reflect percentage vote count predicted by polls.

The USA has a FAILED LEADER who is the greatest threat to America's security and safety.

I finished Mary Trump's book yesterday. He literally does have the emotional maturity of a spoiled child, which is why he is far too immature to go back on a decision, as he thinks that conveys weakness. It's why he'll NEVER admit a mistake, and everything he does is "the greatest thing ever" and "the best you've ever seen." It's why he's angry because not every loves him, so he acts out against "them" by withholding PPE & ventilators, and steals that equipment from Dem states & governors who haven't adequately kissed his ass and thanked him for doing nothing. - He's even more batshit crazy than you thought. Scary.

Yes. A "certain" freedom to infect others. 🤮 Trump has flip flopped calling the virus a hoax... to then calling it a "war"... but he has mostly signaled to his followers that he doesn't take it seriously, and neither should they. As a result cases have spiked in many red states that opened too soon or didn't enforce social distancing & mask wearing. This is not a matter of "freedom" this is a matter of science & safety. A virus doesn't discriminate or care if you are Republican or Democrat. People are dying because of Covid-19. 140,000 and counting...and we are only a few months in. When the second wave hits (and it will) in the fall...what we do now will determine how many more people will die. This is no joke. Also, it is training for future even deadlier pandemics that will surely happen. If we don't take this one seriously, then how will we handle the next one? How would we handle Ebola? Or a virus with an even higher mortality rate?

Listening to the advice of a tv reality star over actual scientists is NOT a good idea. No matter how difficult it is, we are all in this together. Again...this isn't a political issue. It's a scientific one. A matter of life & death. Be smart. Listen to the scientists.

Do doctors and hospitals have the "freedom" to refuse care to those who refuse to wear masks? It's only fair to the rest of us who wear them to protect not only ourselves but others.

We live with all kinds of "rules" that do not infringe on our freedom! Ever seen on a store's front door, "NO SHOES< NO SHIRT< NO SERVICE" ? Seatbelts in cars! Helmets while riding on motorcycles! Come on people, can't we just wear masks in public places to help society as a whole? If we ever want to come out the other side, without 200,000 dead, we need to do this together, it's just the science of pandemic control, it depends on EVERYONE trying to do the same thing at the same time.

If you don't wear a mask, don't complain when they shut down your business again and all the other things they did at first. 60% effective, which means if we all wore one we would at least cut down on the infection numbers by half

President of the Dallas Federal Reserve said the number one thing people could do for the economy and jobs is wear a mask.

"Dr. Fauci said, don't wear a mask. Our surgeon general — terrific guy — said don't wear a mask. Everybody was saying don't wear a mask, all of a sudden everybody's gotta wear a mask."

Why? Because on March 8th when Fauci said that in an interview with 60 minutes, he very specifically said that masks should be reserved for health care workers and there could be a shortage of masks. With context, he didn't lie, he wasn't wrong, he was giving a recommendation based on the best available information. And when that information changed so did his recommendation.

Dr. Fauci continues to show leadership beyond anyone else in the current administration.

People who don't wear masks are killing the economy.

Twitter has disabled a tweet posted by President Donald Trump earlier today which contained the music of Linkin Park. This was a 2015 tweet from the band's late singer, Chester Bennington.

Chester Bennington: Donald Trump is a greater threat to the United States than terrorism.

Add "music pirate " to Trump's resume.

Tons of country bands to choose from. You got Backwoods boys, Willie one tooth, Uncle pappa cousin, The rust truck band, 2 teeth Willie, KKKings, and more...

The polls said Clinton would win the popular vote. She did.

When he loses he'll blame China, Mail in ballots, illegal Mex, media, etc.

I wonder if this is one reason he doesn't try and get COVID under control. If we are seeing widespread infections in the Fall he could use it as an excuse to declare martial law and postpone the election. It would also protect his Republican majority in the Senate. So far the Republicans have shown they will support even his worst ideas, so they would probably support him.

Hopefully his COVID inaction is just incompetence and not strategy.

First of he is losing, bigly. and second no he won't accept his defeat. if Trump were to win the nation is doomed. if he loses we're in for the worst unrest we've seen since the civil war. either way Trump is going to do even more damage to this nation than he already has and that's saying a lot. history will look back on Trump, his enablers and his MAGATS very poorly of that I have no doubts whatsoever.

And he will fight this. Even when the election results are counted and counted again, he will not concede. Chances are the secret service, FBI, and local and state police will be dragging Donald Trump out of that White House by force ON LIVE TELEVISION!

Wear a mask, you will want to be alive on November 3rd.

I watched Chris Wallace's interview with Trump and my takeaway is President Trump appears to be building an insanity plea because Trump's behavior and dialog in the interview were bizarre and whacko!

If the popular vote and the Electoral College decision is against him, what choice does Trump have? He was not elected "President for Life".

Another reason to dislike Trump. Complete disrespect for our Constitutional system.

The Lying King of America !!!

During a bizarre Sunday interview filled with falsities and ridiculous statements, President Donald Trump claimed Joe Biden “doesn’t even know he’s alive” while boasting about his own mental health.

Trump on Cognitive Tests: I actually took one.. and I proved I was all there because I aced it... I took it at Walter Reed Medical Center in front of doctors and they were very surprised. They said that’s an unbelievable thing, rarely does anyone do what you just did

7-20-20

Hey governors, which is more important, President Trump or the health of your state's citizens/

People are worried about someone taking away their freedom instead of worrying about the virus should not ever wear a mask. Most people are worried if these anti-mask people are silent carriers. What about the rights of those who want to wear a mask? best advice is if you don't want to wear a mask it's best you keep your distance because some people will definitely take offense to you.

After months of mocking mask use and watching Covid cases climb, Trump finds a racist way to change his tune. This guy can never admit he was wrong. Did the same thing when he fessed up to his lie about Obama's birth certificate in 2016 and tried to blame Hillary Clinton for it.

Backtracks on his own anti-mask stubbornness far too late and manages to dog whistle at the same time. This man has blood on his tiny hands and his lack of compassion is nightmarish. We can't wait to see the back of you.

Jan: "It's 1 person coming in from China." Feb: "it miraculously goes away." Mar: "I don't take responsibility at all." Apr: Inject disinfectant May: "This is going to go away without a vaccine." June: "it's dying out" July: Still no mask You're 145,000 dead Americans too late.

Put aside the ridiculous politics and hypocrisy of this, and just focus for a moment on the words. "Many people say". "Your favorite President". Which other adult do you know who speaks like this? How are Trump voters okay with blindly following (worshipping?) this man-child??

7-21-20

Why is Brian Kilmeade spreading a hoax tweet falsely attributed to AOC? Oh wait. Fox News.

How can they call themselves the Freedom Caucus when they support an authoritarian president?

Jim Jordan puts trump before country and then pretends to be a patriot...key word pretend How far has the gop morphed into the trump party when Liz Cheney is considered a rino? Apparently the Freedom caucus proper name is Freedom from Thought caucus for blindly following Trump and ignoring scientists and doctors

Trump has now made more than 20,000 false or misleading claims since he took office.

Is it at all surprising that 5 questions on a test that Trump found “very hard” are easily answered by a sixth grader. Trump lives inside his own mind light years removed from any reality or truth.

Cognitive test for voters. Trump or Biden .....Vote for reality in 2020.

cant he perform miracles with the bible upside down in his hand?

Five months into the worst domestic crisis since World War II, and after his disastrous call to rush open states that had not yet purged the disease sparked a surge of infections, Trump may finally be understanding that his performance during the pandemic was a disaster. How many more must die, Trump?

"The truth is, whatever the media says, our whole-of-America approach has been a success." Their only hope is pushing this narrative. They have bungled it so badly that they can only try and convince enough people that the reality they weave is the right one. The problem with this strategy is that sooner or later the facts catch up with the misinformation and lies.

That being said I do agree that there needs to be real analysis about the effects of an extended shutdown. We have to figure out a way through this that does not consolidate money more into the hands of the people in power, as that is all that this will do in the long run. Massive corporations with absorb everything once the small businesses shutter. All the stimulus will just be put into the pockets of the mega rich in the end. This system is not working correctly and it can't last.

It's not like the press is saying we have a death toll of 1 million. They are reporting the number provided to them. And Kayleigh is so Honest as we know.

48,000 died in combat in Vietnam over 10 years, and it was kind of a big deal.

We are now at 140,000 dead in 6 months.

You should have a healthy fear of the virus. Wear a mask. Practice social distancing. It isn't a political comment if you protect yourself and others from this thing, at least until there is a vaccine.

The truth of C-19 has been downplayed by this "president" since the beginning. The results of this and a complete lack of Federal Response to the virus has made it so Americans are now banned from traveling to Europe of Canada. This is what happens when you muzzle our best experts and scientists. The rest of the civilized world confronted C-19 with science and facts and they're now getting their lives back. Our C-19 problem leads directly to The White House.

So if it's so hard on the people out of work then why dont they support them receiving supplemental income ie unemployment until they can work again? It seems like the Republicans would just like everyone to go back to work without protection without health care and without reasonable wages to grow their businesses while at the same time giving millions of dollars of tax payer money to the corporations that dont need it and people are still losing their jobs while ceos are getting record millions in bonuses.

"Scare" or tell the truth? These are scary times and the last thing we need is to ignore the problem and hope it will go away on its own.

His Majesty Trump saved 4 million lives?? Why not call it 4 gajilliion lives? Same logic.

7-23-20

This is crazy! Seriously The President of America on a 3rd grade level feels he is a smart man !!! LOL GO BIDEN you got my vote!

Roger Stone had a quid pro quo with Donald Trump. I don't care what William Barr says he is a tool of a fool. William Barr's independent judgment is whatever Trump says it is The dishonorable William P Barr.

Even when presented with credible evidence, Barr still can't bring himself to admit Trump might actually have committed a crime!

Could Barr have a more flippant attitude? He knows he is untouchable and his apathy shows it.

I can't see any crimes being committed if I look away

News of the Surreal (for Real): "Trump's New Favorite COVID Doctor Believes in Alien DNA, Demon Sperm and Hydroxychloroquine."

Trump is an environmentalist like Jack the Ripper was a feminist.

Trump isn't just on the wrong side of history, he's on the wrong side of humanity.

Sadly, the next President will spend 2/3 their term trying to undo the worst of the damage Trump has done. At least we can hope they will.

The fact that this idiot doesn't feel embarrassed by his actions and words is... wow.

The worst human alive has the most power... just great

I've never hated anyone in my life, but I hate this "president".

He's bestest at being best, at everything! Nobody does more on anything than he does, 'cos he does the most, more than anyone ever did! Aaaarrggghhh!!!! Shut up!

Trump has ripped the mask off the rotten core of the GOP, he is not the exception in the GOP he is the rule.

Seeing all those sweating lobbyists jumping in to assure Manbaby-Trump that it's ok to repeal the clean water rule was absolutely disgusting.

Trump doesn't care about the climate or environment. He figures he'll be dead before world is destroyed due to his antipathy to humanity.

Trump the distractor. Whilst he trashes all safety and environmental standards for his backers.

don't forget: we're bringing back coal and fluorescent bulbs, to hell with those watt guzzling LED's.

Trump finally told the truth! "Nobody likes me." — Donald Trump

"And yet, they're very highly thought of but nobody likes me. It can only be my personality, that's all." #TrumpPressConference Cruelty, dishonesty, hubris and evil are rarely respected, but sure-let's call it his "personality."

Trump: nobody likes me. Also Trump: if I don't win the election, it will be because it was rigged.

"Why does everyone like Dr. Fauci and nobody likes me? Fauci Fauci Fauci!"

The US presidency has turned into a real life SNL skit ..... SMH

Jesus.... how is this baby still the president of America? I mean, America?

Notice how the attacks on Trump are pointed and fact based. His retorts are off the cuff, vicious and immature, much like you'd expect from an elementary school bully.

He's so bloody childish. Age doesn't not equal maturity.

"I Like Being Creative"

Insisting on your rights without acknowledging your responsibilities isn't freedom. It's adolescence.

Carbon neutral by 2:30 tomorrow afternoon? Wow, that Biden climate change plan is ambitious!

This dope literally has no idea what he's reading No, we won't achieve net zero emissions by 2:30 AM or PM But yes, we can aim for the year 2030 (which is what's on his teleprompter). In fact, major U.S. corporations have already made that commitment

Trump is everything the republicans fear. They've created this nations worst president

So the news is only fake when it disagrees with him. Dictator 101

This is why he demonizes anti-facists, cause he's a fascist.

7-31-20

It's scary that people actually believe all the crap that garbage in the White House feeds them, it's like they're mentally weak or have incredible hate inside.

Trump: "Vote by mail is insecure" Republicans: "Let's block all proposals to fund election security"

"This guy was in a coma. What's your excuse"?

This video perfectly encapsulates the cognitive dissonance among his base.

"Wake Up": This is one of the best political ads I've ever seen.

It's like the sitcoms just write themselves. The era of absurdism.

That is single-handedly the darkest most vicious attack advertisement I have ever seen in the last three decades. It is also brilliant, accurate and I cant blame the guy at all for pulling his own plug. Keep doing amazing stuff Lincoln Project.

The woman saying "Mitch O'Connell" @ 3:21 wasn't lost on me. 🤔 Highlighting how Trump supporters don't bother paying attention to anyone or anything except for Trump and his propaganda.

Conservative Youtube "Warriors" ....Are you listening??? This is how you look...and sound.....delusional....

Also: In Germany we have a term called "Realsatire", which means real life becoming so absurd as to basically turn into satire. And yeah, that describes Trumps presidency pretty well I'd say.

Kids start back to school real soon. Then they get sick. Then they die. Then we vote.

Joe Biden: You won't have to worry about my tweets when I'm president.

Biden has in recent weeks unveiled details of his "Build Back Better" plan to rebuild the economy, a platform that includes racial justice, manufacturing, climate policies and a proposal for affordable childcare. He also announced plans to replace Education Secretary Betsy DeVos with someone who actually has a background in education.

My fellow Americans and true Patriots, we cannot allow Donald Trump to steal this election, and I believe there are four keys to preventing this:

1. Check your voter registration status NOW. County clerks in Republican districts across the country fraudulently purge voter rolls of legitimate Democrat voters prior to each election. In the 2014 mid-term election, I arrived at my local polling station only to discover I was no longer registered to vote, even though I had been a resident of my county and living at the same address for seven years. I was forced to cast a "provisional ballot," which I suspect was not counted in the final vote tally. Since then, I have always verified my voter registration status well ahead of upcoming elections to ensure I have time to re-register in case of any Republican shenanigans.

2. Vote early. In Republican states, there will no doubt be attempts to suppress voter turnout in Democratic districts by limiting the number of polling stations and reducing polling hours. This will likely be under the guise of protecting voters and polling workers from Covid-19 exposure. Laws no doubt vary by state. In Texas, voters must vote at their designated polling location on Election Day. However, during the early voting period, voters can vote at any open polling location in their county of residence. This makes it more difficult for Republicans to target Democratic districts for poll closures and restricted hours. Find the early voting laws for your state, and vote as early as possible. This will point you in the right direction: <https://www.ncsl.org/research/elections-and-campaigns/early-voting-in-state-elections.aspx>

3. Use no-excuse absentee voting in states where it is available. "No excuse absentee voting" means you can request an absentee ballot from your state or county election official for any reason. Currently, 29 states offer no excuse absentee voting, including the most important swing states: Florida, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Wisconsin. If your state is on this list, request an absentee ballot and mail it no later than October 20th to ensure it is received and counted: <https://www.ncsl.org/research/elections-and-campaigns/vopp-table-1-states-with-no-excuse-absentee-voting.aspx>

4. Do NOT waste your vote. Yes, my fellow Americans, I am also frustrated by the two-party system, and I understand the appeal of underdog third-party candidates. You must realize, however, that a vote for a third-party candidate is effectively a vote for Trump. Don't believe me? Just look at the numbers. Two states, Florida and Wisconsin, tipped the Electoral College for Trump in 2016. Trump won Florida by 113,000 votes and Wisconsin by a mere 23,000 votes. The top two third-party candidates, Gary Johnson and Dr. Jill Stein, captured 271,000 combined votes in Florida and 137,000 combined votes in Wisconsin. According to exit polls, the overwhelming majority of these votes were from disenfranchised Liberal voters who refused to vote for Hillary Clinton. Like many of you, Joe Biden is not my preferred candidate. "Bernie/Liz 2020" was my dream ticket. Nevertheless, we must be united in taking back our country and making America sane again. Please share this message as often as possible from now to Election Day. Say "NO" to another four years of fascism.

He votes by using mail-in ballots and calls them fraudulent and rigged! Calling him dishonest and hypocritical would be an understatement!

If Trump can't win, he will deliberately destroy America.

Hilary warned the people that if a real crisis was to happen under tRump we would be in big trouble.. She was right.

The GOP should be dissolved!

These Sycophants keep pushing this "Fake Cure" because Trump & his cronies have a stake in the profits. That's it. That's all...

So pathetic, they're trying to discredit a DOCTOR, the GOP will stop at nothing to brainwash its citizens.

Trump wants to distract from the fact that we're still facing a pandemic and our economy is in shambles. And that he and Senate Republicans aren't fixing it. Remember: When we had time to put forth solutions, McConnell sent the Senate home for two weeks and Trump went golfing.

The President doesn't have the power to delay an election & he knows it. Instead of trying to distract from his failures by delegitimizing upcoming election, Pres. Trump should focus on building an effective response to pandemic that has killed 150k Americans & devastated econ.

Donald J. Trump: "Biden to raise taxes by 3 Trillion Dollars." Actually, it will be much more than that, and much of it on nonsense. Markets and your 401k's will CRASH. Jobs will disappear!

You already made the jobs disappear, sweetie.

What jobs? You know we can read the paper. Why can't you?

"Jobs will disappear," says the guy who wiped out all of the job gains since the Great Recession.

Biden wants to raise taxes on the billionaires, so that the middle class and lower classes can have health care and a higher minimum wage. Meanwhile you cut taxes for the ultra wealthy so that your friends could have better lives at the expense of the middle class.

Trump has no healthcare plan. Never has. Never will. Exactly two weeks ago, compulsive liar Donald Trump did what compulsive liars do... lie compulsively during his interview with Chris Wallace. In response to a question by Chris Wallace why Trump hasn't had a healthcare plan in 3.5 years, Trump's response was he was going to have a healthcare plan ready to sign in two weeks. Of course, this has not been the case.

We are gonna "Repeal and Replace "Donald Trump in Nov!!

The TRUMP-PENCE VIRUS has killed more Americans than US troops killed in the Viet Nam, Iraq, Afghanistan, and Korean wars COMBINED! This Commander-in--Chief is failing.

• First, register to vote • Second, get everyone you know registered to vote. • Next, volunteer to get more people registered to vote. ...Then, you win.

We're looking at banning stupid presidents. There are a lot of alternatives: Person, Man, Woman, Camera, TV....

The VP encourages people to apply for absentee ballots while attacking mail-in ballots
How the hell does he think mail in ballots are processed? Okay everyone, change of plan: apply for an ABSENTEE BALLOT, because those are completely different and totally fine. *wink wink*

Omg @VP doesn't realize that absentee voting is the same as mail in voting and neither does @FoxNews. #SoStupid

Trump voted by mail. And Pence. And Ivanka and Jared. And McEnany. And Barr, and DeVos, and Kudlow, and Ross, and McDaniel, and Parscale...

Ya know, Mike. I'm not buying it. Our signatures are checked every election here in Washington state. All mail-in voting. No fraud. You are just afraid of the voters. And you should be.

It's the GOP's way of confusing the hell out of voters so that they're forced to go to the polls. This will backfire spectacularly for them.

We should talk about Trump's obvious mental illness the same way we talk about Kanye's.

An obituary in the Citizen-Times in Asheville, N.C., for Sandra Shuler Thomas in July encouraged mourners to use her death as motivation to vote in the coming presidential election. "In lieu of flowers, think of Mrs. Thomas while casting your vote to remove President Trump from office," it said.

F*CK YOU from David Nagy's family and thousands of others.

David W. Nagy Obituary

David W. Nagy passed away on July 22, 2020 in the ICU at Christus Good Shepherd Hospital in Longview. He suffered greatly from the ravages of the COVID-19 virus and the separation from his much-loved family who were not allowed at his bedside.

Mr. Nagy was born Nov. 7, 1940 in Salt Lake City, Utah, and spent most of his life in California. He made his home in Northeast Texas many years ago after retiring, living in Jefferson for the past three years.

Mr. Nagy leaves behind his inconsolable wife Stacey, his five children Heath, Stephanie, Heather, David and Vikki, as well as numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren and friends.

Family members believe David's death was needless. They blame his death and the deaths of all the other innocent people on Trump, Abbott and all the other politicians who did not take this pandemic seriously and were more concerned with their popularity and votes than lives.

Also to blame are the many ignorant, self-centered and selfish people who refused to follow the advice of the medical professionals, believing their "right" not to wear a mask was more important than killing innocent people.

A statement issued by the family declared that Dave did everything he was supposed to do, but you did not. Shame on all of you, and may Karma find you all! Barron's school will be closed because it's not safe, but he's perfectly fine risking other people's children as long as he is insulated and has daily testing. This is so typical of Trump: Trump votes by mail, but doesn't think anybody else should. Trump thinks all schools should open up, but it's appropriate that Barron's school remains closed.

The president complained about poor performances from governors in handling the pandemic and the fact there wasn't a test in place when he took office in early 2017 for the disease that was discovered in late 2019.

The president can pronounce hydroxychloroquine, but not Yosemite.

In an interview that aired Monday night on "Axios on HBO," Swan demolished some of Trump's most dishonest talking points with a powerful tactic that has rarely been used by the people Trump has allowed to interview him:

Basic follow-up questions.

Many of Trump's interviewers are right-wing sycophants who have no interest in challenging him. But Trump has defeated even his other interviewers by employing a strategy we can call the hit-and-run -- saying dishonest stuff, then darting ahead to other dishonest stuff before the interviewer reacts.

Trump casually says "it is what it is" when told 1,000 Americans are dying each day but the RATINGSSS!!! jesus christ. america needs saving.

Trump is a terrible president, it is what it is.

Probably. It's much like reasonable gun control---we can't let the lives of schoolchildren come before our "rights." [SARCASM ALERT---AND ISN'T IT SAD THAT I FEEL THE NEED TO NOTE THAT]

8-7-20

“Take away your guns, destroy your Second Amendment. No religion, no anything. Hurt the Bible. Hurt God. He’s against God. He’s against guns. He’s against energy. Our kind of energy.”

I’ve covered many frivolous, dishonest political attacks but this combination - a politician who appears non-religious distorting a picture of his religious opponent ACTUALLY PRAYING IN CHURCH, then claiming the opponent opposes religion - may be the most deranged i’ve ever seen

Out of all the ridiculous lies he’s uttered, Trump saying Biden is against God and will hurt the Bible is right up there in the Top 5 of Stupid Crap Trump says. You know, it’s be like saying Trump is against golf and will hurt Putin.

To recap the president’s campaign themes: 1. Joe Biden is very weak and feeble and hiding in his basement 2. Joe Biden is so powerful he will hurt an omnipotent deity and somehow hurt a holy book as well 3. Joe Biden is the candidate who has serious cognitive problems

So @realDonaldTrump is attacking Joe Biden as "against God." Biden will "hurt the Bible, hurt God." But there aren't many in the nation less suited to talk about a biblical/Godly ethic than Trump. What an increasingly desperate, pathetic, clownish man.

One thing we know is that @JoeBiden is a man of deep faith, which is what allowed him to survive unthinkable tragedies in his life. Imagine @realDonaldTrump, of all people, accusing Biden of being “against God!” Trump hoists the Bible. Biden lives by it.

"Those are the rantings of someone shouting at the sky... hoping for spare change," says @chriscuomo as Pres. Trump questions rival Joe Biden's faith. "A man responsible for my and your family really believes that a political opponent is trying to hurt God and hurt the Bible?"

So, today Trump, a man that gassed peaceful protesters so he could hold a Bible upside down, said that Joe Biden, a God fearing religious man, is going to HURT the Bible & GOD! @realDonaldTrump must be the stupidest most politically inept IDIOT to ever defile the WH?

Today, the candidate who’s never been to church & has never read the Bible accused the candidate who’s a practicing Catholic of wanting to “hurt the Bible” and be “against God.”

He ordered federal agents to beat up and pepper spray priests and peaceful protestors so he could have a campaign photo op holding a Bible upside down outside a church that didn't want him there. Now he thinks he has the "God" vote? Pathetic.

Separation of Church and state...practice your faith...you are NOT allowed to force your faith on others. You want government out of your religion? Keep your religion the hell out of government. BTW Biden lives what he believes, Trump lives like the godless shit he is.

Donald Trump is a total antithesis to everything the Bible teaches us. His shameful attack on Biden’s faith, will backfire on him BIGLY. Trump is a #Biblicalidiot.

Leave aside optics of president holding news conf at his private golf and country club during pandemic, but defending the members in room not wearing masks by saying this is a peaceful protest? In a country club? Is this first peaceful protest in a country club in history?

Leading their charge is Donald Trump, a bone spur warrior, a liar and a fraud, a grotesque caricature of a strong man, with the backbone of a bully.

They're the ones with a political agenda ignoring the facts.

Mnuchin is the creepiest man. Absolutely nothing is trustworthy about him.

These people are deliberately lying again and his move is self-serving.

Chris: Why did you lower benefits from $600 to $400? Mnuchin: We tried to keep it at $600 but the democrats refused it! Chris: Because you only wanted to extend the $600 for one week [AND THEN GET RID OF IT] Mnuchin: 2 weeks! WTF Steve..

It's reassuring to know that between all the golfing, watching TV, making up mean-girl nicknames for political rivals, botching the response to the Covid pandemic while being the most incompetent #POTUS ever, he still finds time to be petty & vindictive.

#TremendousMultiTasker

How to write this so the president can understand: Trump is going to lose TREMENDOUSLY because he the BEST sh*thole president IN AMERICAN HISTORY "We won with poorly educated, I love the poorly educated!" -Trump, 2016

Peter Navarro says "The Lord, and the Founding Fathers created executive orders."

Question for Navarro: Was that in the Old Testament or the New Testament? Or perhaps the Koran?

I saw Obama working hard wherever he was: in the Oval or on the road. It's not Trump's location that's the problem. The problem is how Trump defines "working." Lying, sharing accolades, + mean-tweeting isn't part of a patriotic President's job description, last time I checked.

Pres. Trump just called Sen. Kamala Harris "extraordinarily nasty" for her grilling of Brett Kavanaugh -- when she pressed Kavanaugh on whether he had ever discussed the Mueller investigation with Trump's lawyer.

Supreme Court justice lies like a rug. This is the quality of lacky our president is giving us . Pathetic

How can he not remember if he had this discussion with anyone at all. She is not asking about anyone specific. God these people play dumb when they are caught

She's going to destroy Pence in the debates!

"I don't recall." is a legal defense that means the person is likely lying.

Once they de-classify the Muller report a lot of people including this guy will be on squeaky bum time. Barr may even go to jail for obstructing of justice. Senators who also collaborated should also face justice.

She scares me, Pence is going to crumble during the debates

Just this instant received a fundraising appeal signed by President Trump. It opens:

"Kamala Harris is the meanest, most horrible, most disgraceful, MOST LIBERAL of anyone in the U.S. Senate..." Good to see the campaign is off to such a civil start!

"She's the meanest, most horrible, most disrespectful!" Says the man who calls women "horse-face," has killed 162,000 Americans, cages children; says he "grabs women by the pussy," black people are "low IQ" "sons of bitches" who should be "fired," & Obama was "born in Kenya."

Please get me out of kindergarten.

I signed up for Trump emails because I like to know the messaging coming from them.
Their Kamala stuff is laughably desperate and childish. I'm psyched.

"By Columbus Day, 80 percent of kids in our country will be online, and it might be higher than that," predicted Ashish Jha, director of the Harvard Global Health Institute. "What we needed was a real, detailed plan to open up schools and keep them safe so kids could stay there for an extended period of time. We're going to end up with kids largely remote for the rest of this pandemic."

Trump can't even open his mouth without a hundred lies flying out.

This clown is a disaster not only for America but the world

He's the BIGGEST fraud American has had as a president

Trump is DESPERATE and AFRAID. The greatest fraud is perpetrated by trump!

Meanwhile Kayne West a republican is actually being investigated for voter fraud in two states.

He knows his base watches Fox. So he's spewing as many lies as he can while his breath holds out. Mail in voting should be available at least. Does he know how troops that are deployed vote? Oh yeah, I forgot, he never served anything other than himself. Certain states have only mail-in voting. He bitches about a fair election all while appointed his lucky that's gutting the USPS. He's trying to make Dems look bad for wanting mail-in voting and funds for the USPS but imo Dems are doing the right thing for both.

The really sad thing is many Americans are mentally disturbed like him!!!

Can we stop using the soft term "authoritarian"? Let's call him what he is - a DICTATOR. That is the playbook he's working out of. Call him out for it.

Fox entertainment .that's not news. It's just lies. He's just trying to rig the voting in his favor.

He not worrying about the people. All he does is division.

Many teachers and their powerful unions said they saw Trump's language as bullying, wrongheaded, and out of touch with the reality that the virus was raging through their communities, often in red states.

News of the Surreal (for Real): "Herman Cain attacks Dems on Twitter - 2 weeks after death."

The movie theaters are planning on reopening up in two weeks. My wife is forbidding me from going, calling them highly unsafe with their ventilation systems.

News of the Surreal (for Real): "Trump requests mail-in ballot after railing against mail-in voting." President Trump has spent weeks criticizing mail-in voting, but says he's OK with it in Florida.

That's the whole idea. The Trump-Fox News-OANN-Bannon-Limbaugh-QAnon circle of death is designed to do nothing less than confuse, dispirit and depress individual American voters.

8-15-20

Joe Biden: Voting by mail is safe and secure. And don't take my word for it: Take it from the President, who just requested his mail-in ballot for the Florida primary on Tuesday. Biden is leading 2-1 among female voters and it appears Trump's plan to remedy that is to build a statue.

Trump doesn't even try to keep his lies within the realm of possibilities. Trump has done NOTHING for women apart from subject them to his sexist attitudes & behavior.

Trump's insecurity is such that women, especially intelligent & strong women, terrify him!

8-18-20

Eric Trump: This is absolutely terrible

If only they had Scott Baio, Diamond and Silk, Ted Nugent, and an empty chair

I agree! Our country has gone to hell! It's absolutely terrible! That's why I'm voting #BidenHarris2020

BREAKING NEWS: America's gaslighter-in-chief, in the midst of a historic war against the post office and American democracy, fraudulently tweets the opposite of what he's doing and the opposite of what he believes to further psychologically abuse American voters who read the news

This is like a gas-lighting fox yelling "SAVE THE HENHOUSE." A really awful, insecure, power-hungry, belligerent fox, with a penchant for lying who gets in cahoots with Russia, spreads misinformation when it suits him, and is trying to burn down the henhouse for profit.

"Put out the fire!" says the arsonist.

You traded your dignity for a racist reality show celebrity, Marco Rubio.

Michelle Obama eviscerated Trump and she didn't even have to use childish tactics like name calling to do it.

Trump hates when a woman checks his bs. Here comes narc injury & insults. Smh...

Divisive speech? Isn't that the pot calling the kettle black..... there was NOTHING DIVISIVE about the speech! DT needs to go sit down! Vote!!!!!! And the only reason he is in the White House... is because Obama couldn't do a third term! Obama would have won a third term!

Trump's new birther theory, Joe wasn't really born in Scranton. No, seriously.

Donald Trump on Joe Biden: "He wasn't born here. He abandoned Scranton" You know the Trump campaign is getting desperate when he is starting a birther conspiracy about a 77-year-old white man

One birther theory too many. Make America Sane Again?

I was born in Phoenix. My parents left when I was 3 months old. Pretty sure I was still born in Phoenix

Imagine being Devin Nunes and spending four years doing everything in your power to protect Trump and then having Tiffany Trump beat you out for a key speaker spot at the RNC.

The Republican Party is gone. It's been replaced by the Trump Party. Even Tiffany outranks Mitch McConnell.

HALF of the RNC speakers are members of Trump's OWN FAMILY, including Tiffany, Eric, Melania, Ivanka, and Don Jr. This is the most embarrassing lineup of speakers in the history of political conventions. No one wants on board this titanic.

RNC diversity: half the key speakers are non-Trumps!

Kimberly Guilfoyle is ***!!!!!!!!!!SCREAMING!!!!!!!!!!***

She sounds like an evil politician from a B-grade, future dystopian society movie.

Fun to see how Hitler would be like if he was a woman.

“If CAPS LOCK was a person.” Ha!!

DNC- sell the people Love, peace, and togetherness RNC- sells the people fear, hate, and lies.

Please all watch "don't be a sucker" from 1947. It shows how Trump works.

One of the most brutal things said yesterday “America isn’t racist”. Just wow!!!

The cocaine budget for this year's RNC must be the size of a small country's GDP.

Kimberly Guilfoyle has taken Judge Jeanine’s diction course. Or lots of coke. Or both.

More like a speech by Hitler at the Nuremberg rally’s

Jim Carrey: If Lincoln had seen the lineup of liars, thieves, religious hypocrites and racist ne’er-do-wells that would appear at the RNC in 2020... (He’d blow his brains out.)

Remember as long ago as Sunday, Trump campaign was knocking the "dark tones" of the DNC Convention and promised a more uplifting message? Yeah, good times.

Hilarious. What a pathetic, ridiculous, delusional fanatic!

Was this at the RNC convention or is it historical footage from a Nuremberg Rally?

Adderal and meth are a hell of a drug

Most Democrats I know are normal people who want competent leadership from people who aren’t psychotic ideologues. This speech shows precisely why we vote Democrat and won’t consider changing until Republicans decide to be normal again.

Hate to break it to her but she’s in a cult lol

The joker was so dramatic last night, wow. Seemed like a SNL Sketch america has a real problem

We need a sedative dart gun for our growing Karen problem.

Nikki Haley: America is not a racist country. Now here's the white Covington kid who mocked a Native American, the white couple who pointed guns at black people and the president who won't let black people ruin your nice suburbs!

Don’t forget; Trump pulled America out of the UN human rights council so he could cage and separate parents from their children. Pure evil.

Mr. President, you will be evicted out of the White House on January 20, 2021. Don't worry." It is what it is".

Trump says he's calling for both himself and Biden to be drug tested before they debate, because Biden improved so much in his last debate against Sanders that "there's no way" it could be natural, and "somebody said to me he must be on drugs." Bonkers Reasonable enough; suggest Biden counter offer with one more test: a 10th grade civics test. Loser has to drop out of the race.

Did Lou Holtz just call Democrats "Catholic in Name Only?" Biden goes to Mass weekly. He's a devout Catholic and a man of actual faith who doesn't pretend to be one like Trump. These people are so dishonest.

This goes beyond racism. Tucker Carlson is advocating and defending murder.

Melania gave the best speech thus far. First she finally acknowledged the impact of #covid. It was the first moment of sympathy in two days of #RNC2020 but at the same time no masks in this crowd ...and the clear misuse of the White House as if the Trumps are monarchs

Donald Trump is the poor man's idea of a rich man, the idiot's idea of a smart man, the cowards idea of a strong man, the hypocrites idea of a Saint, the crooks idea of a friend, and the fools idea of a Leader.

Most of the World wants Biden to win, it's not only China. The reason is simple, America is currently led by a mad man. The world dont need one man`s greed and ego to start world war 3 just to stay in power!

Look Trumpers I get it. As a kid I was a cubs fan and I know you stick by your team no matter what but he's a traitor and a con man who doesn't care about you. Deep down you know it. I'm sure you enjoy pissing people off but you know Trump is a liar and a criminal.

By the way you can't be against Cancel Culture and tell people to stay out of politics.

You know that time you did a job and didn't get paid? That's trump and you know it.

Fuck Lou Holtz. Biden is Catholic in name only? Compared to who? How many abortions did trump pay for? How many women has he raped? How many times did pull the shit he did in Ukraine. Wake up. He's a crook and a con man.

Remember everything Trump accuses the Democrats of he's guilt of. Don't let the socialist name calling distract you from the fact he is a fascist who has no belief in law.

You know Trump just creates enemies. You know you can't trust him. You know he been incompetent during this crisis. You know all those people didn't need to die. Trump talks about the Space Program and you can't safely go to a movie. Wake up

Trump budding up with dictators is RADICAL. Trump having interfering with the justice department is RADICAL. Trump pandering to the police and army (I gave 3 raises) is RADICAL.

I dont give a fuck if anyone thinks this is virtue signaling or whatever. We need to wake up. We need to call trump the con man and thief that he is.

Heading to bed but remember - If you want to sound crazy please tell me about THE DEEP STATE. - To sound stupid please be against CANCEL CULTURE but then accuse anyone with an opinion of Virtue signaling. - Trump Derangement Syndrome is meant to distract from the con of Don

I love to hear creationists and their arguments for how adam and eve created all of us through incest

Who on planet earth can seriously regard this "creationism" as science? It isn't. It's faith
A true scientist always entertains the possibility that his/her beliefs might be contradicted by new evidence. Creationists fail that test.

News of the Surreal (for Real): "Zombie' Herman Cain Tweets That Coronavirus 'Not as Deadly' as Media Said."

Can we dig Herman up and have independent doctors confirm this? PS: Do you know how fucking creepy it is that you continue to tweet from his account?

EFFING IRONIC: a person (Herman Cain) who died of #COVID19 tweets from the dead to tell us that COVID is not as deadly as it is made out to be. P.s. bonus for also tweeting a false "6%" conspiracy theory.

Losing my mind that Herman Cain's zombie twitter account is tweeting conspiracy nonsense about how Covid isn't real despite the fact HERMAN CAIN DIED FROM COVID.

UPDATE: Herman has caught the virus in Hell and died from it, again. He is now in SUPERHELL

When the Founding Fathers had a nightmare they dreamed of Donald Trump.

Joe Biden needs to do this every day until the election. Time to spin Donald Trump into a tailspin. Trump is losing and acting like a cornered, rabid animal. The need for a change is very obvious. Time to bring it home, Joe!

This is currently Trumps America. It's happening now under his watch, why give him another 4years? Vote blue November 3.

We need justice in America. Those are magical words to my ears. I would crawl on broken glass to vote for Biden. Time for Justice to prevail. For once.

The Washington Post's "Fact Checker" column, which tracks Trump's lies, found he crossed the 20,000 mark in July... or 12 false and misleading claims each day of his presidency.

183,563. Do you give a damn?

"I'm not for vigilantism. I'm not sure that's what was happening ... people took matters into their own hands" -- Ron Johnson won't condemn Kyle Rittenhouse, a Trump supporter who is charged with first-degree murder for killing two protesters in Kenosha Are "citizen soldiers" allowed to be Black? Are Black people able to walk around with AR-15s and shoot protesters they disagree with? I'm curious.

All of you idiots making fun of Donald and ignoring the VERY CLEAR information he's trying to convey — people in the dark shadows who are getting on planes in black uniforms and flying to cities. Shadow People Dressed In Black On Airplanes. WAKE UP.

We're dying from COVID being killed by white supremacy cult and the president of the United States is talking about bags of soup antifa SOUP-ER SOLDIERS with their bags of chicken noodle soup

Fox "News" headline: 125 people convicted of protesting and possession of soup.

Joe Biden has a plan to lead this country in the right direction. Donald Trump plans are the same and that is divide and conquer and create chaos amongst Americans.

9-3-20

"I was just testing whether this state can detect voter fraud when I showed up to vote a second time" — is about as good a defense as: "I broke into the bank just to test whether it has a good alarm system."

Get ready folks. He's going to start doing camera shots now of himself with vets in wheelchairs. ha. He disgusts me. The Liar King.

Please address yourselves to his voters. They brought this cruel ignorant man to the WH. AMERICA IS NOW AN INSANE ASYLUM FOR THE WORST PRESIDENT WHO IS DESTROYING THE USA

He said that about McCain because he had been caught...imagine the ones who died!

A cowardly draft Dodger spitting on War Heroes. How ironic.

Now the lying begins!!! People in his administration is going to lie for him and he has already lied. I am so sick of trump trump supporters: yeah, but what about Hillary's emails

His attacks on John McCain represented his feelings on all veterans as fair as I am concerned. To add insult to injury, he doesn't say a word about Russian bounties on the heads of our active troops. This is by far the worst president in U.S. history.

Trump needs to read Travis Mills book, 'Tough as They Come,' if he wants to know the sacrifices people give for their country.

What did he say about John McCain not being a hero? Trump supporters, "I don't know"

How come he always says "nobody's done what I've done" but never specifies

My husband is a Marine, we lost some of our friends in Iraq 🇮🇶! He just went to far!

Horrible despicable Narcissistic Sociopath he makes me sick! Those men and women are brave and amazing people that give their lives for this country! UM 🙏💔

Easy to believe given what he said about McCain.

Everybody knows that 99.99999% of the magats are going to excuse this somehow, right? The extra insane ones are going to have an incredible contextual setup to make the quotes 'ok.'

"When nobody's done what I've done." Like smearing and disparaging war heroes such as John McCain, for instance?

Don't matter how he treats them. Half of them are going to vote for him anyway

9-5-20

Not just a joke of a president, but a horrible uncaring human being as well.

Surprise surprise... Trumps as much of a Patriot as he is a Christian.

Some things cannot be overlooked. Disrespect for the military is one of them. How can anyone continue to defend him. Enough is enough!

Says the serial malicious liar who took money for lying to the American people...
Oh, well if the woman who admitted in an FBI interview that she lies to the press says it's not true, I guess that's that.

Girl, all you did was lie for Trump. Your credibility is negative 1000. Sit this one out.
The good thing about having no credibility is that you also have none to lose. She can lie with impunity. Her "career" is built on being the daughter of a Governor and the sycophant to the worst President in history.

Sarah, the only thing you will be known for is lying. You have disgraced your reputation and will forever be considered an embarrassment.

I like presidents who fight Racism and Nazis and NOT call them 'fine people'

Trump's only successful business is called "Hate Inc."

Trump airing ads about the danger of a "Biden America" while we are currently in living Hell and in real-time in Trump's America. Oh, the irony!

I like presidents who are not a psychopath/sociopath/narcissist. Hey supporters, you too are mentally ill.

9-9-20

He doesn't care about American's losing their lives he only cares about his own reelection and his donors making money

Reporter =thousands of people will die Trump = it is what it is Trumpists are already saying "but he was just trying to avoid mass panic". Right, because mass panic really destroyed the responses of New Zealand, South Korea, Germany, Canada...

He wasn't "caught on tape"... he was interviews on record.

Wow he sounded rational when saying how deadly COVID is and yet his actions spoke otherwise. WTF??!?!?

For a group so concerned about Pro-Life, they sure don't give a damn about the thousands Trump is responsible for killing due to his lies and fraud.

All American's need to hear these words from his own mouth! SHARE THIS WHERE EVER YOU CAN!!!!

Oh i foretell a miracle on November 3rd. Trump is going to just disappear 57% Of Republicans says coronavirus deaths are reasonable dang.

He basically committed a form of genocide against his own nation. Federal/capital offense, yet he still is on office

His fans won't care about this though...he could do anything

Trump's lack of honesty created more panic and distrust than the truth ever could have.

As well as additional loss of lives by those who believed his false narrative.

Trump has said repeatedly that he was not downplaying the virus and here we are seeing him admit that he was trying to downplay it. insane!

Trump will claim he dosen't even know this reporter

Don't panic over a pandemic, panic about BLM! Protesters are the threat! Law and order! Law and order!

It's in the air... but don't be an idiot and wear a mask... Yah, stable genius leading us DOWNHILL

I appreciate him saying he didn't want to cause a panic, that's the only gratitude this man is going to get from, however if he knew in December and January and February, Then as the President of the United States he should've put his medical departments staff, and heads of departments to work to combat this. But that's not what he did he closed our borders way too late, and then thought I would all go away in the summer. It's September and we've already lost almost 200,000 U.S citizens. I am over this president I want him removed from office and I want to The republicans and the Trump supporters to open their motherfucking nice it's not rocket science Trump is leading us to our end as a nation. He tried or should I say didn't try at all, but the presidency isn't meant for people like this. Self interest do you see where it has lead this nation do you see the skies this morning this is all due to our presidents leadership Vote in November And if you do have to vote for Trump think about your family your friends and love ones will they be with us in 2021 or will you be at their funeral wishing you voted for other candidate.

The damage is done. You're fired.

Trump's campaign: "Fake news. Still voting for him."

How many people are dead, how many lives are destroyed because of this man?

The level of racism required to continue to support Donald Trump is sickening... Because there simply is no other reason at this stage.

Nixon tapes 2020 lil.

I never supported him, just can't see how. But this is even lower, the lives that could have been saved with proper information, and leadership. All politics aside sorry to those who have lost someone. Nothing else, just sorry.

So it cannot be manslaughter, it is the outright premeditated murder of 190 000 people and counting. How the heck can anybody still vote for this murderer.

Trump should be charged for "Crimes Against Humanity". The proof is the 194,000+ American deaths from COVID-19, the 6.5+ million of COVID-19 cases, and the lingering side effects to the people that survived. By his own admission of knowing the seriousness of the virus, Trump deliberately downplayed it to the American public.

Somehow this will be twisted to make him look good by fox news and right-wingers Republicans will have 1 of 2 responses: 1. Trump never downplayed the effects of Covid-19 2. This recording was illegal The first response is just Republicans blindly following whatever other Republicans say, especially people like Kayleigh McEnany and most of Fox News. The second response, at least in my opinion, is the most logical one. I don't know exact laws about recording private phone calls and would love for people that are more knowledgeable in the matter to fill in the details (But please stay unbiased and factual).

An this is the man who is America's president ...if you vote him back in you deserve what u get

My deepest condolences to every American who lost a loved one because of Trump's 20 thousand lies.

He's not stupid. Just evil.

What a bombshell! I don't want to hear his explanation for this. Pro trump people will act like it doesn't matter.

Trump's dereliction of duty is stellar when it comes to curtailing the exponential spread of the COVID 19 Virus in every State of our country. This is criminal negligence allowing more than 6 million people to be infected and more than 190,000 to die.

Trump 2020.....Lets hope it stops there

Trump's supporters will blindly chant "Fake News!"

This won't shift his base. The only thing which would alienate the idiots is if trump hinted at gun control.

King-Con is unfucking believable!

What Trump did is like knowing what is gonna happen on 9/11/01, and doing nothing, to cause no panic. He's just hopes it doesn't happen. Fox-NEWS, coincidentally, chooses the same strategy...

Who are you gonna believe? Trump, or your lying eyes, ears and EVERYONE ELSE. A very respected friend of his once said , " you have to be the most honest, honorable man".

40% of the country will still vote for their "Messiah" the 300 pound guy with fake hair & makeup their "Golden God"

I cannot tell a lie "George Washington " I cannot tell the truth "Donald Trump " I cannot tell the difference "trump supporters"

Nazi Barbie: The president has never downplayed the virus. Trump: This virus is a democratic hoax

"Containment of the virus is pretty much air tight" "The virus dies with the hotter weather" "Number of infected is 15 and going to zero" "This is the next big Democrat Hoax" "We can use the flu vaccine for it" "Anyone who wants a test can get it" "It will disappear like a miracle in April" "The flu death rate is much higher"

These "devout" Christians will one day stand before Jesus (they believe) and Jesus will say, "Get from me, I never knew you."

"I will never lie to you" "the president has never downplayed this" how dumb do you truly think we are?

He literally caused the negligent deaths of 190K and counting!

"The president has never lied"... AHAHAHAHAH!!!

Feb 28 2020 - "We are magnificently organized with the best professionals in the world.

We are ready. We are ready. Totally ready." Sept 9 2020 - 195,090 Deaths Trump's response to Covid was weak, incompetent and deadly.

"Nothing in the world is more dangerous than sincere ignorance and conscientious stupidity." — Martin Luther King

Make no mistake, what Trump did was a violation of his oath of office. It was gross negligence, and a premeditated dereliction of duty. What he did is the equivalent of a Fire Chief out in California refusing to warn an entire neighborhood that the wild fires are headed straight for their homes, which resulted in the loss of countless lives. "I am a firm believer in the people. If given the truth, they can be depended upon to meet any national crisis. The great point is to bring them the real facts." --Abraham Lincoln

Conway's view is spot on. I obviously dislike Trump and I do not vote republican.

However, this is not about political ideology, it is about the reality of having an imbecile with complex mental disorders as a president. I dislike Pence, and in many ways, I think he is ideologically more dangerous than Trump; however, I would not fault a conservative voting for him. Trump on the other hand, I believe a person would have to be a moron to vote for him for the first time, and an idiot the second time. If the situation was reversed (Trump used to be a Democrat), and he was running as a Democrat, I would either vote Republican (very unlikely to be honest) or I would just abstain from voting.

Her job is to deny any negative press against Trump. I hope she is being paid handsomely or losing her soul.

She really believes everything she is saying. Poor woman she will come out with a book on how lying was my job.

She ALWAYS reads a from a dossier full of defensive talking points. It says so much about an administration constantly on its heels

It's ya girl Spinderella, reeling the binders of grief

Does anyone have any doubt why his base is "uneducated white peoples"

Giving excuses while blaming others. Just arrogant people do that.

Leadership is all about confidence... says the con man. Too bad it's not about wisdom, planning, and accountability.

He's literally bragging he could've killed millions instead of a measly few hundred thousand. Unbelievable.

Doesn't want to cause a panic but tells suburban momS BLM & Antifa super soldiers are on planes heading to your suburb in order to destroy it. Trump spreads panic through lies in order to benefit himself.

The art of misdirection

I did not intend to get THIS involved in the 2020 election...but there is simply TOO MUCH to lose to stay quiet If he loses these states - #ARIZONA #GEORGIA #TEXAS #NorthCarolina - this President is through.

WEARING A MASK = an easy, effective way of showing you care about others. NOT WEARING A MASK = a simple, effective way of showing you don't give a single, solitary F about anyone but yourself. GIVE AN F. WEAR A MASK!

If this was a 'political hit job' then the President was his own assassin and he shot himself in the foot.

He literally encouraged people to turn on state governors and protest wearing masks!! He literally ordered YOUR kids to go to school while also signing a Covid death waiver!!

At this point Americans not with the Evangelical Christians should be condemning that group for killing Americans for them supporting Trump.

"I don't wanna cause panic"-Donald J Trump- "Coronavirus is the democrats new HOAX"-Donald J Trump- McEnaney: "The President never downplayed the virus" The President: "I always wanted to play it down" The tapes made by Bob Woodward...TRUMP HIMSELF saying he knows is a DEADLY AIRBORNE VIRUS that kills old and YOUNG people! Maybe 200,000 Americans would be alive if he had taken it seriously

Very strange how there are people serving 20 years in prison for reckless endangerment resulting in manslaughter of one person, and yet to do the EXACT SAME CRIME at a scale of 200,000x doesn't carry the death penalty or life imprisonment? Trump is a mass murderer, this is not hyperbole nor exaggeration. he willingly and knowingly refused to do his duty and watched hundreds of thousands of people die in front of him. This is identical to a lifeguard watching children drown in the ocean and even goading other children to go swim in the rip tide, then watching those children drown. This is the equivalent of malignant malpractice from a doctor or surgeon, or an engineer intentionally building a bridge or building that he knows will collapse. All of these crimes carry life imprisonment as the standard, sometimes 20 years, sometimes death. Where is the law in our country?

He is guilty of manslaughter, many many times over!

He's just blaming Woodward for not reporting it. At that time he would have said it was a hoax.

Trump always blames someone else....his life story.

"Why did you lie to the American people" Trump: that is a terrible question

Trump confessed on tape that he sexually assaults women. This means nothing.

News of the Surreal (for Real): "Bob Woodward may have just handed Joe Biden the election — but at what cost?" Donald Trump may become the second president whose political career Bob Woodward ruined. In his new book, Rage, set to hit bookshelves next Tuesday, the famed Washington Post reporter — whose relentless reporting stung Richard Nixon during the Watergate affair in the 1970s — provides shocking details about how Trump intentionally misled the public about the health risks of Covid-19 to avoid a national "panic."

9-12-20

If that had been President Obama, the Evangelical, "So-Called" Conservative Republicans & their Fox(es) would have tried to get him charged with "Mass Murder" and would Not have let it go, until he was run out of office or locked up (for life) !!! Also, it doesn't matter WHY he downplayed the danger of a pandemic. The fact is that in doing so, he has made Americans less informed and, many of them, dead. He has caused people around the world to see it as less legitimate, and thus caused the infection and death of even more people. Believe it or not, some people in other countries still look to the US as a guide, and I've read commentary from people in such populous countries as Nigeria, India, and México refer to the coronavirus as not serious on the strength of Trump's words. This guy's a killer.

This is so satisfying seeing these idiots squirm.

I have noticed that Biden-Harris signs are disappearing. The one in my yard was taken earlier this afternoon. Please be on the lookout for this illegal behavior.

9-13-20

There was a very funny passive-aggressive political signs across the street from one another when I drove through the rich section of Upper Arlington on Lane Avenue. After driving past multiple Biden signs, I finally saw a Trump sign. Yet across the street from it had a new political sign I hadn't seen yet in the same design pattern as the Trump sign: "Any Functioning Adult 2020". It was a hilarious commentary on Trump.

This happens because the so-called climate change supporters explain things based on news articles rather than actual science articles. They oversimplify complex information leading to misconceptions. This often leaves room for deniers to make wild claims.

The excuses are tiring and getting old. Doesn't matter what the timeline was, doesn't matter what Fauci said, doesn't matter what the shifting opinions were...bottom line is that Trump lied. Trump was never reassuring to the country. He had information he didn't reveal. People based how they went about their daily lives based on what he said in public Chris is right...there's a middle ground where a good leader gives accurate, truthful information. Trump and his idiot supporters don't acknowledge middle ground, which is just one of their many problems.

Trump lied People died Republicans hide End of story.

People enabling Trump's lies is why Americans will continue to die. Please vote!!!

A trump advisor lying about his boss who lied and then lies about the lie.

Dr. Fauci has been a legendary medical hero for over four decades. It's amazing how Trump, GOP, & FOX NEWS uses Dr. Fauci's good name whenever it's convenient and whenever it suits Trump's narrative but then moments later they blame him for any missteps in our response to the pandemic. Dr Fauci has been blamed for the deaths/cases by Fox News and Trump campaign even moreso than Trump himself and Fauci continues to receive death threats towards him and his family. I guarantee you that Dr Fauci never envisioned that GOP political pundits and an inept know-it-all President would be his demise by trying to ruin his legacy. I hope Dr. Fauci knows how much many Americans appreciate his heroism and expert knowledge. I pray for him and his family.

Trump is like the little boy who cried wolf. Only this time he is the wolf.

The Australian government told us the facts as they learned them, we didn't panic, the state governments implemented lock-downs and restrictions and we kept calm and carried on, now we are approaching the end of our second wave. Sadly though, we seem to have a few Q-Anon fools (around 170) that held a thoughtless and stupid "freedom demonstrators" in Victoria but they were dealt with pretty quickly, they were issued with fines for not wearing the proper masks in a mandated area plus a few other infringements (totalling around $250,000) and the organisers got arrested and locked up. By refusing to follow the laws in regard to COVID-19 they were endangering the health and well-being of all those people in the area of their stupid actions and also risking the government having to extend the lock-down for even longer. We elected our government to protect us, it is insane to go against them when they actually try to do so, if they are wrong then science will correct them, not religion as several of the protesters tried to claim. If "god the creator" creates everything then he/she created the killer virus in the first place so it would be very unlikely that she/he would want to save anyone from it.

Republicans have lost all morality when they let the Trump cult take over their party.

A Democrat HOAX? 🙄 Just be sure you REMEMBER your own FAMILY MEMBERS laying in FREEZER TRUCKS and then tell YOURSELF it was just a HOAX! good lawd is gonna ask you... how did I so miserably fail you to use COMMON SENSE and THINK for YOURSELF 🤔... DON'T you recognize the DEVIL and his MINIONS 🤖... YOU have forsaken ME! 😞

He blames it on the Chinese not letting us know, but on the recording with Woodward he mentioned his long conversation with the leader of China warning drumph about the virus

Sure blame China. There were early reports of this back in November and December. Every other Country knew it was coming. COVID came and the other governments reduced the amounts like responsible leaders. Trump did not, now he plays the blame game?

It doesn't matter if China did not disclose information in the beginning. What is more important is what is being done in America. If you look at every other country, everyone is doing so much more better than the U. S. and the main fault is the lack of competent and tactful leadership.

But Trump removed the infectious disease experts from China as part of his slashing the budget of the CDC before the virus hit. First, Trump praised China for its handling of the virus, then quickly changed his tune when things got out of control here. But again; he removed those on the front line in China, who could have reported this to US Intel.

beforehand. And Wallace is correct - Trump's entire message since he began running for Office, has been one of panic and fear. He simply didn't know how to handle the situation, then bungled the response. These people twist themselves into knots to defend Trump, when he is the leader - not the 'cheerleader' on the sidelines, crying out 'All is well and dandy - we're winning!'. He lied, and nearly 200,000 have died and are still dying. He's incompetent, and his sycophants are completely disingenuous.

Republican National Committee Chairwoman Ronna McDaniel faced ridicule on Sunday after she attacked Democratic presidential nominee Joe Biden for what she called his “disastrous record responding to the coronavirus.”

Unlike the leader of McDaniels’ party, the former vice president has not been in office during the COVID-19 pandemic that has killed more than 190,000 people and infected more than 6.5 million in the U.S.

“Joe Biden can’t run from his disastrous record responding to the coronavirus,” McDaniel tweeted. “The truth hurts, Joe!”

Joe Biden can’t run from his disastrous record responding to The Great Plague of London in 1665. The truth hurts, Joe!

Ronna’s right, it’s time to vote President Biden out of office and elect Trump to fix the mess of the last four years

What Ronna McDaniel just gave away: Donald Trump’s presidency is such a failure, his only hope of reelection comes down to convincing people that Joe Biden has actually been the president these past four years.

@GOPChairwoman, let me fix this for you. Like most Americans, you may want to forget the reality of Trump. While you morons made jokes about the basement, your boss was directly leading to 200,000 dead Americans. @JoeBiden will be the next President. Truth hurts Ronna.

Once a nice and reasonable person, Ronna has become a chief gaslighter and has totally destroyed her reputation and career. “The President is the wrong person for the job... it’s a conclusion based on real evidence.” @realBobWoodward Resign Ronna!

Postpone the election! Vote twice! Give me a third term! Are all real and insane things suggested by our current President and apparently not at all alarming to the vast majority of Republicans.

For a self-described “very stable genius” he sure has a hard time grasping simple Constitutional concepts, doesn’t he?

This should be Trumps Motto for 2020, promise everything, deliver nothing, blame someone else, Trump 2020

Trump is NOT running to be re-elected. He's running to avoid prison.

This angry Florida woman argued today against the mask mandate, while bringing up the devil, 5G, Bill Gates, Hillary Clinton, "the pedophiles" and the deep state. Enjoy...

The people who attended the Trump town hall do not agree: Person 1—"I don't feel like he adequately answered it" Person 2—"He didn't answer anything. He was lying through his teeth." Person 3—"He didn't answer my question"...She said she left the event fuming.

Delusional. This proves how every morning they hand him fake headlines and positive tweets from his sycophants. The President lives in a bubble of lies. None of these people should ever get a job again after this.

If he's so isolated that he actually believes this, it does not bode well for the debates (particularly since he's spent months upon months lower expectations for Biden)

Robert Redfield, Director of the CDC, didn't misunderstand the questions, Trump misunderstood the answers.

I believe the doctor not the idiot president who only cares about making money for himself and his family

The rest of the world watching Trump and those supporting him just see the human version of a WTF meme.

Dr. Redfield: "I didn't misunderstand sh*t.

LIES OVER FACTS, DENIALS OVER TRUTH, DARKNESS OVER SCIENCE, COVER UPS OVER EVIDENCE, IGNORANCE OVER KNOWLEDGE, DISINFORMATION OVER HONESTY, THAT'S THE TRUMP ADMINISTRATION.

While the LIBA courses are requiring attendance, it is not required for Vis Lit 1 but definitely can be used as a discussion point if you want in your Visual Literacy 1 courses during the semester. This is completely up to you as instructors if it seems to fit the narrative for Vis Lit.

Thanks.

For those of you who can attend, see you tomorrow morning at 9am for our first 'chat' of the semester.

I miss boring elections. This one is just terrifying.

I now have ZERO respect for republicans! RBG was dead for ONE HOUR and you were trying to fill her seat, disgusting and shameful!

What's the "biden rule" Mitch McConnell was talking about? And why it doesn't apply to this election year?? Also, somebody tweet lindsay graham his own video.

"Doug Collins is celebrating the death of a Supreme Court Justice. Unforgivable. RBG deserves better than this garbage," said Scott Dworkin, founder of the Democratic Coalition.

Florida state Rep. Anna Eskamani replied to Collins, "That moment when you're so 'pro-life' you celebrate someone's death."

9-20-20

The Presidential Election is in less than 2 months. That isn't enough time to properly vet someone and get all of the Senators (1/3 of whom are up for reelection) together for a vote. Ultimately, either Trump needs to get reelected or Biden will get elected, and in 2021 a new Justice will be put on the Supreme Court.

The Hypocrisy is stunning!!! The corruption is blatant. He needs to be removed from office. He is trash!!

Look at Ted the hypocrite Cruz. No morals. No values. Lost..

This Cotton guy strikes me as the sort who would happily throw the switch on the electric chair, - for all his "pro-life" views. I haven't heard him speak out about Trump's inaction over the pandemic. Maybe not so "pro-life" as 200,000 Americans die of covid-19. He's alright, he's tested regularly as are those around him.

Donnie is running against...Donald Trump's America. He says China attacked us w/the virus. If so, HE failed to protect over 200,000k Americans. In Trump's America, 30 million people unemployed. In Trump's America, violence in the streets. All brought to you by Donald J. Trump. Trump has sidelined America! #AmericaOrTrump

His base thinks that the 20 million losing their healthcare are all liberal Democrats! They are too stupid to realize it includes them too. Lol

Mr. President, this is low. Even for you. No, I didn't write Ruth Bader Ginsburg's dying wish to a nation she served so well, and spent her whole life making a more perfect union. But I am going to fight like hell to make it come true. No confirmation before inauguration.

Last week, in protest to Hoadley's request, teachers wore all black, rainbow colors and Black Lives Matter clothing.

"I have black students," she said. "I have brown students. We have undocumented students in our schools. We have trans students, gay students, questioning students and the statistics behind our youth – the statistics surrounding depression, anxiety [and] suicide, those are not controversial. Those are statistics. Those aren't opinions or political views. It is statistics."

"It affects virtually nobody," Trump says of the coronavirus, which has now killed 200,000 Americans and counting

They should turn this into a 30 second spot and run it in retirement communities. Trump's point here is even more cruel than it seems: those who are lost to COVID are just "nobodies" to him -- the same way that soldiers lost in battle are "suckers" and "losers."

“It affects virtually nobody. It’s an amazing thing.” “By the way, open your schools.” A reminder that we have NO comprehensive plan to confront a pandemic that has killed 200K Americans.

Just play Trump's actual quotes over shots of a funeral: "I don't take responsibility at all." "It is what it is." "It affects virtually nobody."

Evil

Know someone who died from coronavirus? Trump considers them "virtually nobody." "It affects virtually nobody" except it affected nearly 7 millions of Americans (that we know of) & 31M worldwide, and killed 200K Americans (963K dead worldwide), but sure, keep telling your BS to your gullible base who trust a 2nd grade reality tv show guy over facts & science.

200,000 dead Americans 6.9 million infected Families shattered Millions thrown out of work Trump tonight: "It (coronavirus) effects (virtually) nobody..."

Why the hell do the Dems still assume that the Republicans have shame or ANY inclination to play fair?

I'm so sick of the GOP!!

9-23-20

Trump seems to forget his mom, grandparents, his wife, her parents his ex-wife are all from the immigration nation.

It's like open mic night at a klan rally, and he's hogging the mic.

Trump is the biggest cult leader, since Jim Jones

He attacks when he's scared. He finds AOC frightening as she's way smarter than him. "basket of deplorables" Clinton was wrong politically to say it... But gosh was she dead right.

Trump's Nuremberg style rallies will lead to Nuremberg trials for his blood stained followers ..

The President of the United States is officially the most disgusting and dangerous man on the planet.

I just watched part of RBG's casket arriving at the Supreme Court Building, and was struck by the solemnity, respect, and love given to this woman. And I realized, honestly - with tears in my eyes, this is who WE are - we're NOT trump. Rest in peace Ruth...

Rep. Ilhan Omar: Firstly, this is my country & I am a member of the House that impeached you. Secondly, I fled civil war when I was 8. An 8-year-old doesn't run a country even though you run our country like one.

9-24-20

Get ready folks. Things are about to get even worse.

Someone threw a beer at Trump at his rally. He's OK. It was a draft, so he easily dodged it.

Watching Trump getting booed at the RBG memorial today made my year so far, as far as politics go. He's so use to saying dumb stuff at his rallies and watching his cult cheer and stroke his ego that this probably hit him like a ton of bricks

Reporter: "What grade do you give yourself on your authoritarian tendency?" Trump: "I give myself an A+."

It was indeed chilling. Going full dictator with those lies about voter fraud, just because he can never accept losing. It's getting scarier and scarier seeing how far gone he truly is
I'm Legitimately terrified for our future

Ted Cruz fills me with disgust and rage.

We are not going to let this man steal another election. We can't do 4 more years. He's become a billionaire again from robbing American he and his heartless children

Trump is scared so uses scare tactics. Who's afraid of the big bad wolf?

Can't humiliate Republicans, they've no shame.

Republicans would never vote for Jesus. He's a Jewish, socialist, who believes in free health care, environmental care and that everyone was created equal.

She'd vote for Jesus lol wait till she finds out he's a progressive.

Sarah Huckabee Sanders is one of my least favorite puppet in Trump's puppet show

Holy Crap! FOX News poll shows Biden up five points over Turmp in Ohio! 50% to 45%.

I lived in Massachusetts up till 7 mos ago and I have always been a Democrat but I voted for Charlie Baker every time he came up. He's just a good guy who helps the people.
even the GOP hates the GOP

My American friends, you folks have a real problem in the White House. Signed by a nervous Canadian.

If he loses the people will take his ass out.

The republicans have weaponized their ignorance. I can no longer stay silent

9-26-20

This is why countries invest in educating their citizens, high quality and free for all. Ignorance is real and it's dangerous.

If Clinton is the President, they would have said COVID19 is God's punishment for having chosen her as leader.

The GOP has absolutely shaken my faith in the assumed dignity of the Senate. I thought they had honestly earned their places in those critical positions through respectability and fairness. When they bowed down for Trump and allowed him to remain in office despite everything he is/does/represents, it was the beginning of the end of democracy and common decency in America. That was the day we tipped over the edge and it was destined to play out this way. With Trump in charge, there was no other possible outcome... Hang your heads in shame, Republicans, you've authorized madness, the death of over 200,000 vulnerable Americans. No amount of money or power should EVER be enough to ease the turmoil in your traitorous souls. Justice for the Fallen! Fight for the soul of America! Vote Them ALL OUT & make them pay! Take off the gloves before they take Everything!

This is what it must have felt like watching the Roman Empire collapse.

Germany learned the hard way. It's now a vibrant democracy. And one teacher was the USA. Except now, the current teacher is a bigotted Moron.

As much as it pains me to say it. You have to really give credit to Putin. Without a shot fired he was able to bring down the most powerful and influential nation in the world. In just four years time the Russian asset he installed has decimated America a thousand times more effectively then any nuclear bomb could have. None of it could have happened without the help and total support of the Republican Party.

If Traitor tRump loses and doesn't go, he'll become Swiss cheese.

News of the Surreal (for Real): "NY Times: Trump paid $750 in US income taxes in 2016, 2017." President Donald Trump paid no federal income taxes in 10 of the past 15 years, according to a report in The New York Times.

Not surprising. Everybody knew Trump has been a tax cheat. Yet it won't sway his base supporters. We just gotta vote him out!

Don't act like if you didn't expect this! 4 years without his tax returns of course his hiding something.

If he wants to refute the NY Times story he can simply release his tax returns.

Trump has already bragged about not paying taxes, makes him "smart".

His supporters will probably be proud of him for getting out of paying taxes. They're not smart enough to realize that by not paying taxes, he's been stealing from us all

And he's almost broke, he paid $ 750 in taxes, 750 in last few years. Absolutely mind-boggling

Why is no one freaking infuriated?!

"What?!" number 615. You know, if this came out in 2015, we have fewer dead Americans. Can we get rid of Trump now? I won't ask for anything else in 2020, not even the vaccine.

When I go fake they go the truth.

He needs to be arrested immediately after he loses the election

It's catching up. Too many lies to cover up.

The "October Surprise" is a bit early this year.

His base is so loyal they would justify this stuff. Trumps "go to" is "fake news", which essentially translates to "its true"; doublespeak 2020.

WHAT KIND OF TAX CODE DO WE HAVE THAT HIS TAX ATTORNEY CAN LEGALLY HAVE HIM PAY ONLY $750?

Republican Senators asked to comment, "I haven't read the report"

My sister must be a multibillionaire she paid way more 750 dollars in taxes

It will be a National holiday at my house when trump is voted out of office

9-28-20

"Spoilers"

Teachers paid $7,239; Firefighters paid $5,283; Nurses paid $10,216; Donald Trump paid $750

Typical Republican.... "I am making money, who cares about ethics?"

"For me, this presidency works." Spoken like a true narcissist. This presidency hasn't worked for 200,000+ dead Americans.

Typical Republican responses. They preach about "principles" but when those are not upheld, they pivot to "it's good for me personally".

Republicans and TRUMP supporters is all about ME..Always the opposite of what Jesus preached.

I want to add that Fox News actually covered this story thoroughly: With a 46-second clip.

Trump is a horrible president and I'm embarrassed to be American because of him.

Trump is just a huge condescending, prejudiced liar. He has been all his life. Just hear every thing that comes out of his mouth... lies lies lies.

2nd woman interviewed, "The country can burn, millions can die, as long as I keep making money?" I will bet my house that this woman claims to be an Evangelical.

Other than enjoying the ridicule Trump has to endure, this really isn't anything big. 1- He will face ZERO repercussions for cheating on his taxes. Only the average citizen has to worry about facing any legal issues. 2- Conservatives don't give a fuck about how much of a criminal or con artist he really is. This isn't going to move the needle any more than the other thousand things we've discovered about the cancer known as Trump.

Trump has been lying to his stupid followers, because he despises them and knows they believe anything he says.

He's had 4 years to build a cult. They are now impervious to shocking revelations that that would have changed their minds in 2016. He really could shoot someone or video could come out of him sexually assaulting someone and they would find a way to justify it.

Trump is LOOTING America.

He really is the Trumpkin: -Orange on the outside -Empty inside -Has to be thrown out in November 🗳️ Vote him out!

Hillary must be suppressing a huuuge "Told you so!" after telling us he doesn't pay taxes during that debate.

Amy clowney Barrett just anointed herself Trump's personal handmaiden. Little wonder the church has lost so much support in America. The day she accepted that nomination Jesus Wept.

I paid more in federal income taxes than Donald Trump. I guess I love America more.

9-29-20

When Trump loses its gonna be the biggest party ever in America.

Getting rid of the electoral college would go a long way in moving America towards the democracy it's always claimed to be. Edit: not to mention giving statehood status to dc and puerto rico

Check out this COVID infection rate map. Almost a perfect overlay with red state America as we head towards the final month of the campaign.

You don't need a fancy algorithm to know that Trump is losing, pretty badly at the moment. The Supreme Court pick doesn't seem to be helping him. The COVID situation may be getting worse again. Maybe the debates will help. But the clock is ticking: people are already voting.

I really can't do another 4 years of him. I'm politically exhausted.

Trump is bankrupt morally, emotionally - and now it's official - financially. And he's dragged us along with him.

He's panicking because he sees that blue tsunami coming, and he knows that prison awaits if he loses.

Imagine Biden winning and Trump getting hauled away on RICO charges immediately after the inauguration, lmao

Timing of Parscale's breakdown is interesting.

New York Times reporting is rock solid!!! Throw him out.

There's about to be a whole lotta' "suicides" in the coming months.

Hail Hail the Chief is going to jail!

This house of cards is starting to fall, and it's going to fall hard.

"It's dirty to release these around election time!" Guess Trump should have released them earlier, then.

Parscale sounds like the normal reaction to learning (or realising) that you are about to be thrown under the bus

"Whataboutism" love it, right justification.

I think our civilization is walking into the abyss. This lunatic is basically holding our Democracy hostage to save his own skin. The more desperate and backed into a corner he is made to feel, the more likely he'll go scorched earth and bring the entire system down to stay out of prison. I'm legitimately concerned that this might backfire. It feels like we need something of a "hostage negotiator" of sorts, talking this guy off the ledge. Make a deal with him that assures him he won't be prosecuted if he bows out gracefully when he loses. Even sign a contract, or whatever it takes to convince him. When he's out of office and away from the levers of power, tell him "we don't negotiate with terrorists" and slap the cuffs on him.

He using the government as his piggy bank to bail him out from the mountain of debt he has.

9-30-20

Only one of them acted anything like a president, and it wasn't the President.

This obscene chaos is what Trump brings to every discussion, in every room in any situation.

Our president couldn't even denounce white supremacy. Absolutely disgusting.

Trump deliberately crashed the thing, to avoid having to answer anything.

The moral and ethical decline in the WH is disturbing..

This is not a human to human debate. This is a human to demon debate.

THE MICROPHONE SHOULD BE TURNED OFF IF IT ITS NOT HIS TURN TO SPEAK.

How's Trumps shout out to the Proud Boys 'Stand back and stand by' Trump is inciting sedition and civil war.

For a President to attack the Son of Biden, not long after his recent passing is disgraceful.

Trump lied and lied and lied and the moderator let him lie. The moderator lost control.

Chris Wallace's poor moderation was only outdone by the apocalyptic lunacy of Mr Trump.

Trump in debate: don't ever use the word 'smart' with me. Don't worry Donnie, nobody will

I said it ALL ALONG! This debate is a waste! TRUMP IS OFF HIS ROCKER!! If anything, his shoddy performance has become a low point for any Candidate in a debate and I DO Hope that Millions of American Voters witnessed this Mad Man's RANTINGS! Though he is an embarrassment, I hope Millions around the World witnessed this, too!

Biden said to the moderator he doesn't know how to not interrupt people ! Trump 2 seconds later . Yes I do you'd be surprised 😊 15sec later interrupts him again 🤦🤦 nobody can stay silent like me I have the best silence ! You can hear a mouse fart from 1845 I'm so silent ! Oops that was me again 🤦🏻😬 unbelievable this freaken man is insane !

That wasn't a debate that was a 2 hour tantrum by a 74 year old child while Biden, Wallace, America and the world looked on in horror.

There should be no more debates. Obviously we will find out nothing more in the future than we found out from this debate. Tonight we had a tyrant versus a normal presidential candidate with sufficient experience to run the country. The tyrant was opposed to a democratic election and expected to continue in office without it, the candidate was willing to bow to the will of the voters, win or lose. Democracy is obviously at stake in this election. I suggest you vote Blue because the future of our country is a stake. The United States cannot be ruled by a tyrant.

Trump destroyed himself in the debate, and he acted and talk like a clown on the stage made people hate him

I can't believe trump said stand down and stand by. He's basically saying riot if he loses and we all know how much the right love their guns.

Trump for Penitentiary 2020!

What did anyone expect Biden to do,, trying to speak over the rantings of a mad man. You are witnessing a barbarian and a civilized person. Are we going to destroy ourselves? Are we going to become barbarians? This is what is going on.

Trump was immature and unprofessional and said nothing new just the same lies over and over again.

80 million ballots is bound to overwhelm the USPS! Good luck handling the 2 Billion Christmas cards they do every year!... oh, wait...

This is what I expect Hitler was like when he was coming to power and just like Hitler trump hit all the racist hate remarks, the bullying, the talking over of everyone. The malignant narcissist and pathological liar and con man trump proved why he should not be reelected. That should be removed from office before he sends out the orders for his version of the Nazi brown shirts to preform acts of domestic terrorism and violence across the nation. to interfere with the election and assault people in the streets at his direction.

JOE BIDEN debates, Trump LIES, WHINES, FABRICATES, he is a weak bully!

Quick solution: CUT THE MIKE of the one that interrupts. That is what teachers have to do on zoom, seems there are lessons in decorum that need to be taught.

My twins are in Kindergarten, doing distance learning. There are many disadvantages to distance learning. For instance, since the teacher isn't physically present, if I don't monitor them, they wouldn't pay much attention to her - luckily I can, with difficulty, arrange to spend that time with them. One of the few advantages of distance learning is that the teacher can prevent a student from disrupting the classroom by muting the student. Trump would never agree to it, but Biden should insist that, in subsequent debates, the moderator have that same power. I never expected a US presidential debater to be less well-behaved than a Kindergartener.

"You either denounce white supremacy or you're a (expletive) racist."

The entire country has to make a decision as to whether it will continue to downplay the fact that our President is an openly racist White Supremacist and what that means for its citizens, or... VOTE HIM OUT.

Here's the big takeaway from the debate: Trump was asked to condemn white supremacists, and not only did he refuse to do so, he told them to "stand back and stand by." You know, as if he is their leader. That's the takeaway.

It was also embarrassing when tRUMP, after being asked to condemn white supremacists, replied: "Proud boys, stand back and stand by." It was beyond embarrassing, it was downright shameful.

Singer Pink wrote, "America, Are you okay with this (expletive)? Seriously? I'm so ashamed that we've lowered ourselves to even consider another term for this shameful loser. Even if you think it's still defensible behavior. Your children are watching."

Fox & Friends' immediate debate takes -- disappointed about no "knockout punch," "when we were walking into work this morning everyone was just shaking their heads," and "we were the big losers last night, meaning the American people."

The worst Presidential debate ever. They should put a mute button on Trump. Or Slap him every time he interrupts.

My grandfather always told me: "Never try to tell someone stupid, that he is not smart. He won't understand it."

45 is an international embarrassment. Enough is enough. Vote him out.

Trump: "Don't ever use the word 'smart' with me. I'm stoopid I tells ya, STOOPID!"

This debate is the best sitcom of the year. This is pure comedy and the level of disrespect is off the charts. #Truth #LordHelpus

Hold on !! He's talking about Philly? Philly everyone please get out and VOTE!!

A very sad Canadian that can't understand how any REASONABLE educated person (even if they just made it to highschool) can still support Trump. Please go vote so we can "never see him again."

To quote Dana Bash: "It was a sh*t show."

So deeply narcissistic 🤪 🤪 can't even allow someone else to speak in his presence.

Also he is afraid of truth. Chris tried but he was unable to control this man-baby.

Another Trump Meltdown. Biden was calm when no one else would be debating him

Trump isn't a president, he's a sideshow

"Donald Trump is assassinating the presidency." - Bob Woodward

The guy is a Nazi. He surrounds himself with Nazis. His voting base is made up of Nazis.

Why would he condemn his own people?

- Trump declares Antifacists "terrorists" - Trump refuses to denounce Nazis - Nazis are fascists He is literally spelling it out for you.

I think shock collars are needed for the next debate.

Trump's entire life has been an embarrassing debacle to anyone with a brain, a heart, a conscience or a soul. Yet, somehow, around 40% of Americans think he is the greatest thing since sliced (white) bread.

The only good parts of that Debate were when Biden lost his cool and snapped at Trump

The President of the United States gave the green light to domestic terrorism last night!

Hello!

He told white supremacists to "stand back and stand by" when asked to denounce them and then launched into a deranged tirade about Antifa. Chris Wallace was practically play babysitter.

Joe Biden defending his son, and saying how proud he is of him for really hit home. Joe is a real Human. Trump is PUTINS PUPPY.

10-1-20

Damn... even Trump TV is losing it.

Can't denounce white supremacy can't say black lives matter... can't unite the country plain and simple

"I'm tired of it!". We feel you John Roberts, we really do.

remember when we didn't have to ask the president if he was against white supremacy?

I always wondered how the hell Hitler rose to power in Germany – it's all very damn obvious now. It's happening here and it's happening now.

How about this rule: the first one to interrupt will be disqualified. The winner will assume the presidency.

You HAVE to get that madman out of office.

Trump, that wasn't a debate. That was watching toddler Trump try to convince you that they're not lying when you've caught them in the act. I'm surprised he didn't storm off the stage.

Chris Wallace wasn't trained to handle a fugitive from a mental asylum like Trump.

It was sad to watch that debate!

10-2-20

I woke up this morning, October 2nd, and checked my phone for the news, numb to whatever crazy shit that Donald has done or said overnight. And then I got the most unsurprising SHOCK of the year:

Ironic Karmic News of the Surreal (for Real): "President Trump and first lady test positive for COVID-19." The revelation comes after one of his close aides, Hope Hicks, tested positive this week.

This could very well turn out to be the greatest karmic moment in American history. It's as ironic as hell.

I assume he'll be taking his own advice and snorting lines of hydroxychloroquine and starting bleach injections?

Thoughts and prayers for a quick recovery

Be careful. He is faking he has it so he can say "look it was nothing" playbook tactic of a narcissist cornered.

"I don't really care, do you?" written on the back of her jacket Melania visited illegally caged children by her husband.

Trump is so irresponsible. cares for no one, not even his family.

She's... alot like Trump isn't she? The way she speaks and even repeats herself. So, when people ask how she could marry tRump and stay with him? The answer is they're alot like each other.

"Who cares about Christmas, right?" - Melania Trump

Labeling it "Liberal media" is how these lunatics ignore the reality of it all.

In one rant she showed her and her husbands stance on Christianity, Children's Rights and Immigration.

Self-entitled spoiled trophy wife. Wow. She had to do Christmas with all the help she has?? Really.

When you realize a 73-year-old president that tells you to drink bleach and hand sanitizer is tested positive Priceless

I have no sympathy for anyone in this administration.

He just came out positive for Covid! The irony.

Hard to feel sorry for Eva Braun

Guys, she's working her ass off with those Christmas decorations. How can she be expected to care about children at the same time? Ordering staff around all day is exhausting!

Trump: I got an A+ on my test Doctors: Sir, you got a positive

The word liberal literally means: willing to respect or accept opinions different than one's own! in any other situation her husband would ask her: how are things in your own country???

Whining because they won't broadcast her propaganda.

Tested positive: 'It is what it is' And 'gee that's too bad' Everybody should say these things

She speaks like 45, in circles and saying nothing.

Fake/orange-colored plastic people acting like they're above everyone. 40% of the U.S. supports King Trump and his Merry GOP.

He had it coming!

God is listening to my prays, let them all got hospitalized and really really got verry verry sick no ventilators because they don't pay their tax

Talk about what goes around comes around , it couldn't happen to a better guy , get that ventilator ready orange face

Talk about an October surprise! 😊 Within a few hours he'll say he took hydroxychloroquine & it went away like a miracle. He has super spreader rallies to get to.. He's not the quarantine type.

I wish I could feel concern. I wish I could pray for his total recovery. I JUST CAN'T!

Trump: Hey Dr. Fauci I know that I completely undercut your messaging and all that scientific stuff... but have you got some advice for ppl with the China virus.... asking for a friend Fauci: ....(crickets)

I thought be best was about bullying. Now she switched to drug use because her husbands the biggest bully on the planet and will never change. I'm sure Melania is a nice person but what has she done to help anything before Donald unfortunately won? Nothing I hope he survives this, and he should remember the 207,000 lives lost because of his reckless attitude; and that this is not a hoax.

There is a GOD!!! 🙌🙏 us

"I don't really care, do you?" Timing of ALL this is to convenient. JUST more Chaos. Draft dodger. Non tax payer. Compulsive liar. Adulterer. Melania's "best friend" who signed a contract with a book publisher to sell books - SELL books has another bombshell taping? Parscales having a "meltdown"? Voted for the clown. Welcome to the circus. When people SHOW YOU who THEY ARE the FIRST time. BELIEVE THEM!

God is good God is great

I'm hopeful! Go virus!

Is it still a "Democrat hoax?" Are you still going to mock people for wearing masks? Are you sorry for lying to the American people for months? I ask these b/c I assume you'll get the best taxpayer funded gov't healthcare avail + genuinely hope you recover. But you owe us answers

NEWS: POTUS CONFIRMS HE HAS THE HOAX

But it's a Democratic Hoax? How could this have happened?! And WHY did you get tested?! That's what causes it! One more question: Do you care about pre-existing conditions now? Because YOU now have one. One that YOU called deadly.

"It is what it is." - Trump

"I don't wear masks like him. Every time you see him, he's got a mask!" - Trump referring to Biden 2 days later:

If Hillary Clinton made a commercial about email security right before her scandal, I think EVERYONE would have made fun of her. If Biden did a promotion for Amtrak right before being hit by a train, it might have gotten a few chuckles.

Donald Trump literally claimed Corona Virus was a hoax and made fun of Joe Biden for wearing a mask yesterday. YESTERDAY.

I think about the 200,000 United States Citizens who have died thus far. How many do you think took it less seriously because of Donald Trump? .5%? That would be 1,000 people who lost their lives because they followed the President of the United States who literally down played the seriousness of the virus.

You reap what you sow as a bible once said. All I said was that karma can be a cruel bitch and right now, she's paying back with interest. It seems entirely apropos that Donald Trump contract Covid-19.

"Instant Karma's gonna get you. Gonna knock you right on the head. You better get yourself together. Pretty soon you're gonna be dead. What in the world you thinking of, laughing in the face of love? What on earth you tryin' to do? It's up to you, yeah you. Instant Karma's gonna get you. Gonna look you right in the face. Better get yourself together darlin'. Join the human race. How in the world you gonna see, laughin' at fools like me? Who in the hell d'you think you are? A super star. Well, right you are. Well we all shine on, like the moon and the stars and the sun. Well we all shine on. Ev'ryone come on." –"Instant Karma" by John Lennon.

"Are you one of them? Are you bulletproof?!"... "Let's get away for a while"...

"Absolutely! Thoughts and prayers"..."My life is over"..."I know I was no perfect father"..."God bless!"..."A common enemy rallies the base"..."Moral compromise does have its privileges"..." And then everyone's heads start exploding!...

10-3-20

Republicans waking up? Too little, too late. They committed man slaughter for 7 months. Props to Chris Wallace, but trying to teach masks on fox and friends is like trying to teach ethics at Trump university.

The Donald J Trump, Corona Flu Klux Klans Rally.

It's a fact ....Trump's cult is worse than scientology.

Trump's a parody of himself, so caught up in his disillusionment and arrogance, it's about time he got hit with some reality.

Fox helped create this monster. So congrats on helping to ruin this country. ☹️

"Wear the damn mask and follow the science." "Oh my goodness." Seriously, Chris Wallace saying 'damn' is what it takes to get you riled up after everything that has happened?!

Watching Tucker Carlson right now and it is, as expected, mind bending. He's arguing that saying Trump was irresponsible for not wearing a mask is like saying a woman deserved to be sexually assaulted because she was dressed provocatively.

Wouldn't it be more like refusing to wear a condom and making fun of others for wearing condoms and then participating a condomless weekend orgy and everyone ending up with VD? [While still blaming the whole thing on what the ladies were wearing, of course] so he's saying that men are like a disease that attacks women?

Ridiculous and offensive comparison by Tucker Carlson. If you're badly injured in an auto accident and you weren't wearing a seatbelt, I *will* blame you for not taking a basic safety precaution.

Bad take, Tucker. The enemy isn't human nature, it's the environment. If you walk around naked in winter, you're gonna catch a cold. If you walk around maskless during a pandemic, you're gonna catch covid.

Claudia Conway: "Update my mom has covid," she wrote on one post, featuring a video of her wearing a mask. "im furious," she wrote on a follow-up video. "Wear your masks. dont listen to our idiot fucking president piece of shit. protect yourself and those around you."

10-4-20

I don't feel bad for trump his karma found him and he deserves it.

Trumps doing laps around Walter Reed in his motorcade waving to morons. So unless he dies it is all an act.

He's not the leader of the free world. Not anymore. Now the leaders are Merkle/ Macron/ Trudeau.

I'm not praying for the trump family. The deserve what they get.

10-5-20

Republicans believe covid is The Rapture, & as a result, are actively trying to spread it It's funny how republicans are against Covid "fear mongering". They only want people to buy into the fear mongering they support like the "gay agenda", the "crisis" at the boarder, insane conspiracy theories, the various things corrupting our youth, and the "epidemic" of voter fraud. But as soon as the threat is backed by actual science they turn around act like they're a bunch of reasonable anti-alarmists who "don't buy into fear mongering".

Never Trust a Liar.. Unless You are Stupid....

This is what happens when you follow Trump and you don't follow the scientist and doctors.

Officially the White House is a totally infected place.

The karma train arrived at the White house and loading up all those deserving and I'm sure that the train will be filled Couldn't happen to a more deserving person! If only Moscow Mitch would get it.

Kellyanne is pure evilness

But the pandemic could be neither browbeaten nor charmed. It is not impressed with his Nielsen ratings. It is not afraid of attack ads in a congressional primary. It does not comport with Trump's long-standing principle that to modulate, to adjust in the face of distressing information, is to acknowledge weakness.

January: "It's going to be just fine."

February: "It's like a miracle — it will disappear."

March: "It's something we have tremendous control of."

“As toughly as only president Trump can”, oh dear God woman, in decent English. How many of the 210,000 dead had the luxury of being airlifted to a suite in Walter Reed “in an abundance of caution”?

FOX News, the real Fake News!

Recklessness.! 🙏usHe is the beast the devil sent to walk the world.

When will all this BS end???

We absolutely have to vote this monster out. Make a plan to vote & then make a backup plan. Offer your friends a ride to the polls (wear a mask, be safe). Download movies to your phone, you're probably gonna wait a while. But no matter what, cast your ballot. Tonight...He looks desperate for breath and terrified... he very well may not live through this.... fake it till you make it may not work this time ..... a bratty bully threw a fit until his doctors threw up their hands.. what a sad state of affairs ... Desperate Donny night night

He does have it, the videos of him wincing in pain and panting in front of the whitehouse shows that, no way that could be faked. He was trying to hide it but he's struggling to breathe. This makes things worse, because he's telling people it's okay while he's clearly NOT okay, causing harm to others with intent. He's a monster.

His actions are misleading and killing his followers.

10-6-20

News of the Surreal (for Real): “Trump falsely accuses Biden of support for abortion 'up until the time of birth, and beyond'.”

Only republicans think Trump is strong. Everyone else knows he's just a pathetic bully. Our allies will think that Trump is projecting utter stupidity.

Trump isn't agreeing to a virtual debate because he can be muted

Trump isn't married to ideas and policy points. He succeeds with his grating, obnoxious personality that is red meat to his supporters. A virtual debate will reveal his utter incompetence.

Yes!!! I LOVE IT!!! - Perfect outcome! Biden is ahead - debates can only help The Dump! The D behaved so characteristically disgracefully (with 147 interruptions in 90 minutes! - That's not a debate - that's chaos! The Dump's specialty!). And his entourage, refusing to wear the masks, as they had previously agreed to. Based on all of that, He should forfeit the right/opportunity to debate again. This way, he does, and can't blame anyone but himself!

If he doesn't have a crowd of trumpers willing to die for him he is not going to participate. ...lmao that fly on pences head is more popular then the impeached president.

...

The only reason Trump doesn't want to do a virtual debate is because he won't be able to interrupt every second.

Trump wants 'in person' so he can disrupt the debate. He does NOT want the American people to know the truth.

It's hilarious when trump was on the phone talking about why he won't do the virtual debate & he said "they'll mute me". LMAO.

History will not remember "president" Trump kindly at all - he will be a cautionary tale for future generations about how the denial of science, fact and reality for personal or political gain can and will kill people and tear a nation apart and I for one will never forgive him or his supporters.

Mayor Pete's a veteran, a real fighter, not a coward who dodged the draft five times.

BREAKING!: Feds stopped a militia group from kidnapping Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer and from overthrowing government. ✕Shred the Dixie Taliban Confederacy

I wish more progressive people like Pete would appear on FOX. He is very sharp and articulate. Maybe something would get through to their audience

Pete Buttigieg's well-spoken and smooth delivery is delightful.

10-9-20

Thank you for reminding us that a President needs a cool and calm demeanor when making life-and-death decisions.

Oh wow, Marco coming out against Trump like this, finally got his moral courage back. Answer: Certainly not a rude and vacuous man who agrees to rules and then continually violated them, demonstrating contempt for women while channeling his boss, as well as evading answers to questions that should be easy to answer.

We're missing the main point: a Republican Senator implied a woman is too emotional to be Vice President of the United States. In 2020. Let that sink in. I'm calling it - @GOP is not salvageable. Period. Pence lowered the coffin, Rubio set it ablaze, Trump nuked it.

Pete Buttigieg really went on Fox News and asked "why an evangelical Christian like Mike Pence wants to be on a ticket with a president caught with a porn star."

Trump will insist his tombstone reads: NOT DEAD. FAKE NEWS

Trumps losing so bad he asked AG Barr to arrest his opponents. 😞 Reeks of desperation and still very ill with COVID 🤒

What Chris Wallace moderated was NOT a debate, it was a debacle. Trump is only afraid he can't hijack the debate, by bullying over the rules, and not allowing anyone else to speak.

Donald loses and he's not gonna go peacefully. His supporters are gonna throw a tantrum. They're the real snowflakes.

Why does FOX want to destroy America?

Turn the microphone off, when they are speaking over each other TURN IT OFF !!! zoom debate! ZOOM HAS MUTE! MUTE THEM AFTER THEIR 2 MINS!!!!

10-10-20

WORST PRESIDENT EVER..... people it's almost over vote him out bigly!

10-11-20

Does anyone, and I mean ANYONE, in Trump's entire circle EVER tell the truth. Trump's base consists of a bunch of bottom feeders, gorging themselves on 30,000 (and climbing) lies.

10-13-20

Vote like Biden's down -5. Republicans can't cheat when it's a blowout.

I don't like Biden, but I voted early for him because Trump is a goddamn disaster. They are singlehandedly ruining their own party. They stopped hiding their sneaky stuff when tRUMP took office.

It's mainly Trump's fault, people can't forget his disastrous handling of the pandemic. Americans can't be stupid enough to tolerate 4 more years of this clown.

I still stand by that Biden needs to beat Trump by at least 4% of the popular vote and have at least 310 Electoral Votes by midnight on election day for the race to not be considered close enough for Trump/Republicans to claim it's results are not acceptable or to be contested. And even then, Trump will still try to say he won/remain in office since he's such a sore loser and many of his cult like base will believe he deserved to win/the election was rigged against him since that's all he's been talking about for years.

Remember: the underdog in the polls is a fascist madman that sat back and played golf until 200k innocent Americans lost their lives to the Coronavirus when we needed him to step up and be a leader. Vote Joe Biden, he's much better than Trump.

Imagine the Democrats doing a Mitch McConnell on Republican bills. I expect the tea party to show its ugly head again yelling and screaming we need a balanced budget, although they were absent/silent during the massive Trump spending sprees.

I just want Trump locked up after his presidency

Is Amy your first name? I can't answer that...I'll need to talk to people about that and look into it.

Bigger point! She could not answer the STANDING question about the Law as it stands NOW!!!

Constitution is clear on this.. delaying election is authority of congress. It should be common knowledge even to a legal practitioner.

She is ghastly. Refuses to answer questions. Talk about a wolf in Christian robes.
